Thread: 3 doxxers failed to find this person \(myself included\)

DirtyDiesel - October 18, 2018, 1:42 pm

I'm looking for a valid phone number for a certain person, and need a highly skilled person to find it. If you can help, post or pm me for more info and if you think you can do this. so far nobody has successfully gotten any info.
thnx in advance.

Vouch for this, I tried and I failed. If anyone can do it, I'll pay 25 bytes as well.

Diesel has a legit reason for this dox, and I'd love to see him get it.

Much appreciated, I'm thoroughly stumped and close to tapping out.

I can likely find it. Not sure I get messages yet though.

I would recommend you contact Mr. Robot - he's talented in this area for sure.

Don't trust doxers.

Use a real hacker like myself to find the individual.

Done this and sent result. Tip for next time.. don't just PM people a name for someone who could be anywhere in the world, tell people everything you know about them so that they don't waste their time finding what you already know. Hopefully this helps anyway.
