Thread: Possible side effects of Bytes Bonus Day?

Aadgjmptw72 - October 20, 2018, 10:56 pm

Will there be consequences of this "bytes bonus day"?

Like maybe the value of bytes will go down, or maybe it will make for a lot of shitposting?

Do you think bytes earned should be impacted by how many characters are in a post?
I believe that this could reward high quality posters while punishing shit posters.

Whats your opinion?

Chief Turbo - October 20, 2018, 10:57 pm

Obviously the price of bytes will go down, shitposting will rise too.

They might be fucked they might not be.

We really have to see how common these events are and how many bytes are gonna be created from this.

It is my belief there should be something like a 1000 byte cap for today.

Not with everything coming out- I think the prices will only be down while those collecting try to sell for gain.

Those who invested will buy the bytes while cheap. New development with crews, and gaming activities will have bytes integrated.

The value will change short term but the value won't really change long term.

The worth of the bytes are going to be down for a little bit but then raise back up.

I hope that with the Crew system releasing that the Bytes demand will go up.

Yeah, they will. This should just be a short-term thing. :)

When everyone spends their 10k/100k bytes on the crew game the value gonna shoot back up.

Yeah Im not worried. Infact, I would probably pay the same rates if I were buying bytes today.

Bastille - October 21, 2018, 8:21 am

I didn't even know that you can sell your bytes.

But yeah, obviously, people are going to shit posting ?

Shelob - October 21, 2018, 8:22 am who cares about value goes down for now, it will rise again later

I don't think they'll drop below 0.01$ tbh.

People can post maybe 60 times an hour. 6$ an hour for the poor users right there!

The Bytes value will go down obviously, but the activity will increase drastically.

The 10 bytes is insane. Cant believe omni did it to be honest.

Omniscient - October 21, 2018, 8:25 am

Many gamble their Bytes away in slots or blackjack. And so let's say that there has been an extra 4000 posts in the past 10 hours since I implemented this. That represents an extra 20,000-30,000 Bytes into the market. Hardly a massive sum when you consider we have 2 million Bytes in circulation.

Quote:There will be a lot of shitposting in the lounge side of the forum, but I'm sure most people will save their bytes for something else other than money at this point. :)

Sure, we'll get some extra Lounge posting but I'm seeing other forum activity too. And I do think a lot of members will save their Bytes as they are realizing that we have plans beyond gambling games.

btw, I'll end this by the end of today. So it's short-lived and just temporary.

Thanks for the clarification. Best get your bytes in quickly guys!

Bytes is definitely going to be the next big thing!

Very good points... I didn't realize there were already 2 million bytes in circulation thats insane!

trizzac - October 21, 2018, 11:18 am

I cannot wait for the upcoming plans with bytes. They do certainly seem promising.

BTB™ - October 21, 2018, 11:22 am

Thanks for the clarification Omni.

The next big thing - BYTES!

Yeah.

Im a little less hyped now that I've learned that you have to be uber/root to create a crew

Yes, bytes day will be ending today, but thats ok because now is the time to capatalize on this opportunity and get to posting!

IBotnet - October 21, 2018, 11:40 am

People will just gamble them away on dumb shit.
