Thread: How much \$\$\$ would you want to go to jail for a year?

Voltaire - October 21, 2018, 9:29 am

As soon as you walk out of jail, some dude hands you x amount of money. How much would you feasibly go for?

SIM-2875347 - October 21, 2018, 9:30 am

For a year I'd probably do it for around a million, maybe a TINY bit less.

luke - October 21, 2018, 9:31 am

I'd go to prison for a year for $500,000.

Frankey - October 21, 2018, 9:31 am

At least 5 million. I do not think I would like being locked up in a cage for a year :P

Axe - October 21, 2018, 9:31 am

Thats a year of my youth im not getting back so $2.5 mill for me

i'd do it for 300 trillion doge coins yea i would love to stay in jail for that Lol, I would go for 1/10 of that.

webdev77 - October 21, 2018, 9:32 am

I could take $500k and do it provided that I could return to my regular job upon release.

1 year without being in the outside world for 20000? You are crazy man...

VIXV - October 21, 2018, 9:33 am

It's a whole year of your that you would lose. No one knows how long a person will live for, spontaneous events and all that. So I'd settle for about 750K+.

A lot happens in a year, plus jail isn't exactly the most fun environment. Also being away from all my friends for a year and not being able to do what I love would be rough.

V3N0M - October 21, 2018, 9:43 am

1 Year is a lot of time, and time is money. But id do it in my country for 10 mil. In some better country...idk 1mil?

Voltaire - October 21, 2018, 9:44 am

Well, yeah. I would miss society.

even if just 1$ Mill thats enough to have a better youth than 1 year later so on

Djazairi - October 21, 2018, 9:46 am

I would do it for 100k€, when you know that some people work 40/50 hours per week to earn only 20k per year, they should go in jail

I love my freedom. I wont go for any price as my freedom is priceless.

Toast - October 21, 2018, 9:55 am

At least 3 000 000 dollars. I would be living in a cell for most of that year, and I'm sure I wouldn't enjoy it, but for 3 mil would be somewhat worth it.

MadGoofy - October 21, 2018, 9:56 am

$2,000,000 not less I guess

DooOmsDay - October 21, 2018, 9:58 am i dont think i can last a month, without my family and my lil bro.

Almonds - October 21, 2018, 9:58 am

$750,000 would do it for me, lmao.

WageWolf - October 21, 2018, 7:58 pm

I would not do it, I value my freedom too much!

PerfectStorm - October 21, 2018, 8:00 pm

$400,000 Maybe would do it.

I would do it for this amount as well. Also I wouldn't want a record so I am still able to get employed upon myself getting released. Alllsoo I wouldn't want it to be some super super max level prison cuz even 500k not worth that.

SIM-3257834 - October 21, 2018, 8:14 pm

I'll take 400k as long as I won't be abused or touched by others.

Woes - October 21, 2018, 8:15 pm

A couple hundred thousand would be enough for me.

Condoms - October 21, 2018, 8:44 pm

For a whole year... I rather not.

There was that program tho where NASA would pay you to stay laying down for a month straight with no interaction if I remember correctly..

I would do this over jail.

SuperiorUser - October 21, 2018, 9:05 pm

250k + at least lol. I don't wanna go to jail though

630 - October 22, 2018, 12:06 am

Depends if it would affect my future or not. If it affected my future I'd need like $2,000,000. If it had none then I'd probably doing it for $250,000.

C'mon I bet after a month you'd change that to a minimum of $500,000.

I'd have $250,000 to establish myself and then look for work. I'd try to focus on myself and getting into better shape. Only thing that would potentially fuck with me are other inmates. There's a lot of what if questions to think of with this question that you've gotta assume.

Norwegian prisons are equally to hotels. probably a little bit lonely though. I would take perhaps 500.000. maybe more due to the fact that I am in my youth

Capital Bra - October 24, 2018, 2:51 pm

For 500.000$ i would go to jail

Walter White - October 24, 2018, 3:06 pm

If they had all those amenities, you'd have people trying to go to jail!

Yuikoro - October 24, 2018, 3:22 pm

Maybe $400k-500k

I don't think I'm worth that much. It's just the fact that while I'm there, it's a year of unproductivity which will stunt my future by a bit.

If I were able to have the same amenities I have now (decent computer, book access, internet) then I'd probably say $70-100k. I'd be able to continue school taking online courses (granted, it will probably be only 6cr), and make around 7-10times as much as I would currently make in a year working 13 hours a week.

Moxxi - October 24, 2018, 3:51 pm

Ill do it for 10 million as long as its jail and not prison

James.2154 - October 25, 2018, 7:38 pm

300,000 at least. but would really depend where im locked up.

M1L3NK0 - October 25, 2018, 7:42 pm

Depends on the crime. If it's one that'll hurt my chances getting a job after I'm released, at least $2m. If it's not a baaaaaad charge, I'd go for maybe $500k

packofmidgets - October 25, 2018, 7:43 pm

$175k but I would want it up front to pay bills and to have commensary while in there.

Lmao. I don't remember where it was, but I remember there were death row inmates that were allowed to have a cat and one of them had a super nintendo or a nintendo 64 with a tv in his cell.

Strayaa - October 26, 2018, 1:28 am

Well it would have to compensate for each of the following..

Rape, drugs, random attacks from junkies, criminal record, job loss, future job loss and that whole year of money.

So lets say because I get a criminal record, I can't work for 2 years, + the year I'm in prison for. On average Australian annual wage is like ~85k a year so that alone *3 is $255,000.

To be possibly fucked, attacked and all that other prison shit and what I'd have to put up with for the rest of my life I'd have to ask for at least 3mil minimum. Wouldn't do it for any less.

Also I believe it makes a huge difference which prison you go to and in which country

Wolf - November 2, 2018, 12:12 am

I've even considered going to jail just to experience it.

As for now, I'd do it for $50k. With $300 being average wage in Serbia, I'd have a nice headstart.

finnastu - November 3, 2018, 12:35 pm

A million btc is fine by me

spradebassen - November 3, 2018, 12:52 pm

im not going to jail for anything sorry

Tax - November 3, 2018, 12:53 pm

The Dutch jail is more like an hotel so i'd go for $200.000

RAT - November 3, 2018, 12:53 pm

12M would be fine, I guess. Yea.

R4A1 - November 3, 2018, 12:58 pm

I'd do it for $1,000,000 probably no less. That's a whole year of your life.

MadG00fy - November 3, 2018, 1:03 pm

For 100BTC

I take the risk.

dontspamthisplease - November 3, 2018, 1:58 pm

200k is pretty good for me too

Wespa - November 3, 2018, 2:15 pm

Depends what country, im from finland so it wouldnt be too bad.

a million would be ok, 500k if he is good at bargaining.

No, because some things are worth more than money, such as freedom and dignity.

ewhoregod1337 - November 3, 2018, 3:23 pm

500k and i'm in. see you in 1 year.

ExpiredNumber - November 3, 2018, 3:25 pm

Money? Well first I'd have to be smart about this. I'd ask for 100000000 trillion, get the money beforehand.. make a deal with Trump, someone would take my place.

give him 1/10th and then build a teleporter to help that individual or learn to clone myself, if Trump says no..

But in all honesty, I don't want to be in jail for all the money in the world.

Neodraxis - November 3, 2018, 3:28 pm

Would have to live in a luxury prison like Wilson Fisk.

Dope - November 12, 2018, 3:01 pm

Depends on which jail really. I bet there's a huge difference between a jail in Jordania/Saudi Arabia/Asian countries compared to EU/USA.

Aficionado - November 12, 2018, 3:04 pm

I would say 500k.

Need to have a nice gym and decent meals @Jail so hopefully I get to choose which one to go to.

Conscious - November 12, 2018, 3:05 pm

Where I live hmm.

$150.000 - $200.000

Ez pz

Oran2009 - November 12, 2018, 3:08 pm

One year... for 10 million :)

EIDoc - November 12, 2018, 3:26 pm

If someone handed me a briefcase with 500K I'd go to prison for a year no lie.

falkenburry - November 12, 2018, 3:29 pm

I'd do it for 500k maybe even less jesuschristisfake - November 12, 2018, 3:51 pm

I'd not accept anything under $50 mil

Cymbalta - November 12, 2018, 4:03 pm

You would have to pay me about 10 million dollars for me to go to jail for a year.

N0F3ar71 - January 19, 2019, 3:16 am first depend on what state and kind of Jail but

150K for the payroll

150K for the family

200K for the reputation

200K for the kind of jail (with or without books, internet, family visits ...)

that means from 500 to 800k $ per 1Y of my life

I'll pay back 100K to the Jail to improve something that for sure i will find not working :-)

Kenjataimu - January 19, 2019, 4:00 am

I dont think many of you know anything about jail.

100k probably is minimum. 100% at 200k though.

Have time to read and do whatever.

Like lets look at this logically.

Most people here arent making over 40k.

If you get anything over what you make at your job/business its stupid not to go.

FaggNigg - January 19, 2019, 5:24 am

Average wage here is 12k/year, so i'd say for 40K i'd do it

Geass - January 19, 2019, 5:39 am

MRDONUT - January 19, 2019, 8:51 am

Astrologer - January 19, 2019, 8:56 am

$365 million, 1 million per day.

Alexander - January 19, 2019, 10:19 am

I'd do it for anything over $15,000.

Yeuuup. Just did 6 months earlier this year.

Honestly not that bad -- don't get me wrong, it sucks, but it's not that bad. At least not for me.

Probably going to be some major ass for 90% of the skimp brony/fags on this forum though.

I'd do it again for 100k after taxes.

Mix - January 19, 2019, 3:59 pm

Ill take a phat stack, probably a £500,000 for a year. maybe more depends what its in jail for really.

$5,000 a week for life.

That would be good enough for me. Also, segregation with loads of sleep aides.

Time would fly, I dont wanna fuck with or be fucked with. No chance of getting a longer sentence that way, who cares what the other inmates think? You'd have money waiting on you and a good ass life on the outside.

Segregation and sleep aides.

Yeah mate, let's just rephrase the OP from spending a year in jail to spending a year comatose in bed.

Huge difference right here. Also, spending anywhere near that long in seg will make you want to kill yourself. 4 days in seg fucked me up, let alone 365.

I don't get how people do that in jail and shit. They hop up so fast for the med cart and are a zombie all day. usually wind up being the most miserable people.

If typically a person makes 20k a yr on a 9-5 schedule I'd say I'd be okay with 75-150k. Free food, friends and place to sleep. Also if you get lucky you get a TV! Free channels the food is trash. you will wind up spending money on food too but not that much. You're paying like $1 for a ramen noodle or $2 almost or chips in a lot of places. prison is better cheaper prices. and you dont get to watch what you want on tv and most of the time you wont be able to hear it over people yelling all the time.

Maskin - January 21, 2019, 5:16 pm

$60,000 would be enough I suppose, since I wouldn't make more than that at my current job anyway.

However, there is a big difference between a US prison and a Swedish prison lol ? I'd stay in a Swedish prison for free

Capital - January 21, 2019, 5:26 pm

For $600,000 i would go to jail for 1 year.

It would be a unique experience which could teach me alot and $600,000 is a fair payment for that experience (50k per month)

red - January 21, 2019, 7:25 pm

$100,000

Easily could take the cash pile and invest it properly while also being in prison at the same time. Hell, for 6 months learn as much as you can about investing and money making schemes and then the other 6 months act on your newly obtained knowledge and by the time you're out, you are set to live steadily for the rest of your life. Ez
