He said he didn't have the old number to change the security info and said he doesn't want to give me the password because it's the same passwords to all his exploits he made with similar emails. So he said pick another tag and I said give me " V i n n y ". Same thing happened to that account. He said to wait 30 days and I get both of them. I waited and now he's ignoring me and not responding after 48 hours. We were talking on kik and here.
