Now this is something awesome, how long does the method take to set up and does that mean I could be spending $$$$ a day?

No i'm not people always take days to review something and sometimes don't review at all, i've given away free copies of all my products in the past and i don't want to deal with this hassle anymore, that's final.

1 time thing each account - After 58 days you'll have to pay for advertisement like everyone else does or consider the acc to be useless and repeat the method.
