Thread: Compare yourself with a product/object

Stonelsland - October 24, 2018, 1:18 pm

So, I need to give a presentation on school about me comparing myself to a product. I couldn't think of anything, so I thought why not make a thread and let other people do it. Maybe I can choose one of yours.

EXAMPLE: I am a bottle of vodka, because I give my opinion fast, speak easily and am messy.

EXAMPLE 2: I am a rollercoaster, because it doesn't matter how I reach my goal, I am reaching it.

Thanks.

EDIT:

Got one. I am a plant, because I am always growing as a person. ?

It's just a metaphorical concept- it doesn't seem that hard at all

Mhm, I have the same feeling sometimes. Fucking scam, lol.

Gotta have a degree though!

I can compare myself to a star because sometimes I shine the brightest but sometimes i tend to go super nova

Out of anything, I'm probably a mini library. I read a lot.

I got one. I am a plant, because I am always growing as a person. I can talk a lot of bullshit with this one, so it's good.
