Woops, completely forgot the most important part. Updated my post with proof, thanks for reminding me.

This looks really promising. I went ahead and added your skype to ask some questions before I buy. Thanks in advance.

Appreciate your interest, I've added you to provide you w/ more info as to what this method is all about, thanks.

Unfortunately I will not be handing out any vouch copies aside from the copies I handed out during testing phase. I am very confident in my method and it's ability to profit which is why I will only allow REAL CUSTOMERS to post REAL REVIEWS. In turn, I've decided to release a few discounted copies to help get our first few members on board. Expect to see some reviews shortly and thanks for your interest.

So what's this all about? A bot who sells something for you? Ebay/Amazon related? Payments are via paypal only?

What you've mentioned there is all basically public information and has nothing to do with my method, also this does not involve a bot or vps. Payments can be taken daily via paypal, crypto or bank transfer.

Feel free to add me via skype and I'd be glad to give you a run down as to what this is all about, cheers!

It is a compilation of other guides offered in the forum

I don't recommend it at all

Bought the method and received it very quick. Currently setting up this with shade and it looks very promising. Shade is very friendly and there is a really cool bonus method you receive as well. Let's see how this turns out.
