Thread: Firefox or Chrome

salimon - October 26, 2018, 9:20 am

I like the auto fill in from chrome when typing an domain but I love the layout and speed from Firefox, can someone help me on the ups and downs of both please and which do you use?

Despite consuming a lot of RAM, I would rather use Chrome. Idk, it just feels right. lol Also, the developer console is a big plus.

Chrome with adblock and lastpass.

Bosiniooo - October 30, 2018, 12:14 pm

The obvious answer here is Safari

I have always used Firefox personally although Chrome is a close call. Been an OG firefox user since like 2007, lol.

Is Firefox even a thing anymore? I remember being loyal to Firefox even when Chrome first came out. Someone convinced me to change and I never went back.
