It's 25,000 Bytes starting prize with a 5 Bytes ticket cost max of 10 tickets. Someone is going to win a LOT of Bytes next week.

Lavish Living - October 26, 2018, 8:29 pm

Bought 10. Hope I get this b2b official lottery dubs. I've actually bought/won all bytes from the first 3 official lotteries haha and used them to host the 115k+ bytes lottery.

Cameron - October 26, 2018, 9:14 pm

Still haven't won a damn clover after all this time but fuck it. Added my 50 to the pool for the lucky bastard that wins it.

I probably couldn't even win a ban if I tried. ?

Nate - October 26, 2018, 9:15 pm

Gonna stay safe and save my bytes now, Don't have that much to splurge on, and I know many members are going to purchase multiple because they got hella bytes smh

Pain - October 26, 2018, 9:15 pm

Damn lets see who wins this hopefully I get lucky...

emotionull - October 26, 2018, 9:19 pm

Had to invest into this, I have high hopes. I will pray daily.

Max you can buy is 50 bytes worth so not like its a big dip. Equivalent to 10 or so posts for us.

Pyro - October 27, 2018, 5:03 am i like how its made everyone join-able since 50 bytes isnt too much, comparing to previous lotteries where some members bought 1 ticket, and some bought 1000, we all have the same chance

Evanescant - October 27, 2018, 6:01 am

A textbook example of fair lottery unlike others who say the lottery to be fair when they allow unlimited tickets. Good luck everyone.

SIM-2059193 - October 27, 2018, 6:03 am

I'll probably join in later this week before it closes and hopefully win.

Just a very lucky dude.

Or at least friend of some user here.

He's referred by Silver Fang and coincidentally, silver fang donated few Bytes to him to enter the lottery.

I too did this. My cousin is on HF. I made him enter the lottery.

I can't say for sure that it's multi. It could be genuine case too. Btw congrats to the lucky dude.

That feel when a two post account wins...

falkenburry - November 2, 2018, 11:09 pm

Lol some new guy won it, oh well that's the point of a lottery!

Silver Fang - November 2, 2018, 11:12 pm

I'm just going to point this out before it get out of hand with the allegations, the guy is a friend of mine he recently joined up on HF because he's interested in graphic design and found some other interesting topics and yes i referred him to this community.

I also told him to sign up on the contest and donated him some bytes in order to join.

We had a good laugh about this just now.

Add: It's also kinda funny because i also won one of the first big contest with bytes when bytes came out... so it's kinda ironic.

Pyro - November 2, 2018, 11:16 pm

congratz to some new random guy ?

BoyToyStory - November 2, 2018, 11:27 pm

Hey guys! As my buddy mentioned, I had asked him about a site with marketplace about graphics and other stuff. He told me to register here and then asked me if I wanted to join the lottery and sent me some bytes to join. Im not sure I really grasp how much these bytes are worth. But thanks for all the nice PMs! :)

Not accusing to be a multi. Could be genuine too.

You seem lucky if you already won once and you made your buddy win with your bytes.

There's something lucky with your Bytes ?

JTMBoss - November 2, 2018, 11:43 pm

Who doesn't like to?

I also would like to see a restriction on new members who don't have certain popularity points or something similar from entering lottery. As many members are creating multi-accounts to enter the lottery to increase their winning probability.

SIM-2830142 - November 6, 2018, 2:43 am
