Oran2009 - October 27, 2018, 6:15 pm

Just wonderin how many ub3r users use uber lol

SIM-3257834 - October 27, 2018, 6:17 pm

I use uber once in awhile, mainly when I don't have my car...which is very rare.

Mr. Robot - October 27, 2018, 6:19 pm

I taxi everywhere. I spend a good $400-600 USD a week on taxis.

savaged. - October 27, 2018, 6:21 pm

uber doesnt run in eu so ive never used it.

?BowmanBot? - October 27, 2018, 6:23 pm

I am not sure if you think that they are related or not but, Hack Forums' Ub3r usergroup was around before Uber the company was created.

doubt ill be going to one any time soon but sure.

lunaticcc - October 27, 2018, 6:25 pm

I used Uber before it was voted illegal in Denmark, due to it competing too hard against "real" taxis.

MasterCurser - October 27, 2018, 6:25 pm

They aren't related. But, I use uber almost daily.

Gay - October 27, 2018, 6:36 pm

I've literally never used uber in my life

Wow - that's a fuck load of money spent on taxis.

Do you live in a really busy city?

Wafflemonger - October 27, 2018, 6:38 pm

I personally don't use Uber at all. I use Lyft in nearly every situation. Most of the time it's cheaper for me.

Yeah I'm slightly confused about the question here.

Malevolent - October 27, 2018, 7:51 pm

I have used an Uber maybe twice in my lifetime.

Both of which were paid for.

You mentioned Ub3r and Uber any reason?

UpTheCrust - October 27, 2018, 7:52 pm

I ride in ubers. That counts for something right?

Uber is dangerous

gore - November 28, 2018, 8:13 pm

I tried it once for like a month when I was out of work on a LOA and bored out of my mind. Wasn't bad at all but definitely wouldn't want to do it full time due to the mileage it puts on. I also don't do it anymore since I'm back to working full time. I did maintain a 5 star rating though ?
I also have had to use it as a rider a few times when my car has been in the shop or I'm out with friends. Haven't had any bad experiences there either because I'm generally pretty quiet and difficult to displease. Lol.

I'm also in a major city so that plays a big factor in it. I could load up the app right now and someone would be here in less than 10 minutes. It's a lot safer to uber when I'm out with friends and drinking as well.

Pyro - November 28, 2018, 8:16 pm

Uber is everything parents teach us not to do ?

get in the car with strangers

emotionull - November 28, 2018, 8:59 pm

lyft is better than uber in my opinion.

Almonds - November 28, 2018, 9:14 pm

I use uber whenever i'm out drinking or gambling.

PerfectStorm - November 29, 2018, 1:26 am

I sometimes take ubers but I never work as one.

Runs in Netherlands as well, not every city though.
Uber is ok, use it a lot when I'm abroad.

Bacardi Cola Lime - November 29, 2018, 1:36 am

Never used an uber before and probably never will where I live. There are better apps for "real" taxis which get hte job done better for me.

Hello Kitty - November 29, 2018, 2:19 am

Uber is not legal in Denmark, it's seen as Pirat taxi...

Zan - November 29, 2018, 4:17 am

Unfortunately we don't have ubers in Finland. :/

HOMODIN - November 29, 2018, 4:24 am

Gotta say that I have never used an uber...would be fun to try out being a driver :3

?ystem - November 29, 2018, 9:03 pm

I've used Uber services a couple of times over the years, but where I'm at, Lyft is a tad bit cheaper. Plus, the last couple of times I've used Uber there were issues with the drivers and charging me twice, etc. Otherwise, my insurance covers my taxi rides in the cities.

Kanenas - November 29, 2018, 9:05 pm

I would never have a stranger drive me around.

Iust - December 1, 2018, 2:21 pm

I use Uber a fuckton. Out of the dozens of times I've used one, I've only had a single bad experience. There was this guy that was not only watching a boxing match on his phone while driving, but the entire time he couldn't shut up about his conspiracy theories. This man was going on about the Rothschilds owning half the world government and how we're going to get taken over when the oil industry folds because some new energy for cars comes out called energy point two or something like that.

Blogger - December 1, 2018, 4:01 pm

I used to use it alot when I lived in California. It's way cheaper than a taxi and super user friendly. The only thing that sucks is that you can't use cash.

Raz Riverblade - December 1, 2018, 5:00 pm

Screw uber.

My car, best car.
