If you send 15% bonus you will not earn money... Your benefit is somewhere else and we don't want to be your benefit

Do you have some gay relationship with El Professor since you always have to defend him?
If there is more people who calls him out than defending him then it is probably a really bad service.
End of story.

There's never been any proof though :/ seriously I'd love seeing some proof that what he's doing is bad.

Why do people hate on him then?

People don't invent bad experiences with a good seller because then they know that they can't return to the seller. ?

So i'd love to hear about your good experiences with him. ?

I bought bots, got said bots. They haven't died yet. That's end of story. But now you've provided some legitimate proof he enjoys sales trashing and harming business. Was it so hard to give proof? No. And now I can stop defending him and stop caring

I think you are seeing things, take a small break from the drugs. I didn't provide any proof, I just gave some valid arguments.

El Profess0r's signature is "unclickable" which is why I never bought installs from him in the first place, LOL.

badspidercat, there is no solid proof he's scamming yet. just bad install rate % in terms of bot life.
