Scam reports without a contract dispute are invalid. Sorry for your loss.

IDK and i didnt even remembered this lol but since he said he'll pay back so either he should pay back or get banned from HF.

cause as of now its invalid so the scammer can live a free non banned life on hf as staff wont give 2 fucks since contracts werent around as users could scam all day and every day and staff didnt care. now with contracts if caught scamming there is a 89 percent change the scammer is banned if contract was used in deal Did i know that? Lmao if you had used your common sense you would have looked at my profile and saw that i have joined recently. Think before you comment ;) and all scam reports are invalid if it does not include a contract. Read the top thread from Omni, i assume you havent otherwise you wouldnt have commented. I know it was 7 months ago but its basically invalid and his account will not get closed. Learn to read wtf...
