At least he is gone now, sorry for your loss man. Be sure to check the section's stickied threads so that you know how to make a proper deal in the future. Contracts are in place for reason, and they need to be used for EVERY deal.

I would only accept crypto and then use other highly trusted services to get the money deposited into my bank account.

Sorry you got scammed bro. It was $1000.

Thanks for reporting but you should show the conversation and maybe add some pictures using imgur. This doesn't help us as much.
