Thread: valar morphulis - Account possibly sold + multi + at this point not refunding 1 user

Mr. Robot - November 2, 2018, 9:25 am

Anywho besides thread title, he's ripping on kids on HF. The fact he doesn't remember talking to me on HF in the past is hilarious considering we shared like 300+ pms back in like 2016 early 2017 (same username now as Mr. Robot bruh who forgets me)

The reason I think he's sold is his username changed a week before his password and email which changed on the same day.

I also believe

Is

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=481087>

So I called valor out on a thread here

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5902365>

Originally just asking questions so forth as I had talked to valor in the past quite a bit on HF but something seemed off.

Anywho Riyu commented on that thread (second to last) then all of a sudden valor goes offline, that first account comes online after 4 months then posts on riyus thread.

It's being used by valor to bump posts and shit for himself, who knows how many other accounts he has.

Don't deal with him.

Who posted on Valors thread and just now on Riyus - same time frame /posting style as the other one further up

I would love to talk about this topic but sadly I'm limited cause of language.

I believe that almost every "popular" member of HF has multiple accounts. I'm probably going to get hate posts because I'm talking shit about those "big" members but I don't really care. Whole this community is based on lies. Just take a look at Trappy and other similar to him. He posts some ebook and he instantly has 100 vouches even tho nobody read that book yet. It sucks that "big" members can manipulate with this so easily.

I'd bet $1000 right now that the guy you're talking about is multi and probably false advertising his service or whatever that is.

Well, whenever I would sell something I had tons of people vouching for me that I've never even dealt with or heard of before.

I've never had people vouch for my product or whatever I was selling unless we've actually dealt with each other.

So who knows, maybe all of the vouches are just other members kissing ass?

Tor - November 2, 2018, 9:42 am

I think the only multi here is you. Look at your trust scan it's worse than mine.

You getting mad over the fact that I dont like you even though we used to talk? What an attention fiend. And now that's a reason to make a CA because everyone is supposed to respect you and if they don't they got hacked and are scammers/multis? Absolutely mongoloid.

PS: I know you're absolutely desperate to become mod but even you haven't read the Help Docs, calling me a scammer without a link to valid contract.

If you want me to post your carding history and child porn I can - i'm more concerned about whether you are the original user of that HF account or not considering you don't seem to remember me. I can provide proof of the original owner being involved in said activities and have done so to the romanian police.

I understand and yea, you might be right. But let me ask you one thing.

Let's say you got vouches for money making method. Now you decided to sell I don't know, something about graphics. Is it normal to receive the vouches on your new thread from the people you worked previous on money making.

Like what does money making has to do with graphics, nothing. So vouches from those guys shouldn't mean anything for your new thread cause they are no related. Only thing they can vouch for is that you're legit. And what I usually see around here is exactly that, people come and vouch for something they don't know anything about.

This is all figure of speech, I'm not blaming you ;)

:s I have an old acc on HF made like a few years before this one. I accidentally logged into it in 2016 with the wrong email and realized I had made an account a long ass time before, had to PM Omni to close it.

I am soon opening dispute with all the proofs on Valar-s method that i paid 270$.

He sells the same files as Shade and charging much more for it. I dont want to sales trash Shade, he sells these methods for cheap which is worth in my opinion but Valar provided me with same files Last edited in Jul 2018. He just changed author name in PDF file, everything else is same as Shades method from word to word.

That's insanely stupid but surely shade was in on this and knew that's why he commented on the thread.

Can confirm all of this. Will be posting my own CA later with more proof of this, including a banned user who was selling the same eBook 4 months ago and was also a multi :)

'Proof or it didn't happen'.

It's been reported to the Romanian police so if it's you, good luck getting out of that one. Otherwise you bought your HF account from the wrong dude.

And here Valar is still trying to cover up the fact that his methods suck and are completely Scam by removing sales trash and neg repping everyone who does so. Will appreciate if mods just ban this guy already.
