We don't have fancy graphics, we don't need them for a recruitment thread. We will in the future have some decent graphics for you to use if you wish to represent the group through tutorials.

Our groups mission is simply to be respectful to those who deserve respect. Nothing more, nothing less.

You will be ranked within the group privately and once we see fit you will be given the password for the locked subforum inside, until then you may use the open section to post threads, ideas and discuss whatever you like within reason.

The only true requirement to joining is being of at least 21 years of age -

If you have a better beard than I do, you will be added instantly.

If you can provide proof you are a regular cigar smoker you will be added instantly (likewise with pipe smokers)

If you can provide proof you indulge in the right types of alcohol you will be added instantly.

If you can provide a suitable image in a suit, with a cigar/pipe and a glass of whiskey - you will be instantly given password restricted area access.

There is no application template. Tell me why you should be part of this group.

We will help you better yourself both offline and on. We will help you dress, communicate and find meaning.

Current list of members - Not linking their profiles, if you recognize the names - you will see why they have been added.

Hello Mr. Robot,

I am an Architectural technician but I feel there's a lot missing from my life, I have the dream job and everything that I wanted as a child has come true but there's something that just isn't quite right. I feel the group could benefit me on quite a large scale, I'm a very honest person which is why I can honestly tell you I don't think I have much to contribute to your group other than life experience, wisdom and a good old fashioned smoked whiskey and a nice J&R.

I believe I have a lot to learn in life, I want to find my own meaning and find who I truly am! I've never been good at applications or anything formal for that matter, I'd love the chance to better myself and I think your group is the way forward.

I know I don't have a huge post count, and I've only been here for a day but I see I meet your one true requirement. (DOB: 30/05/91 I'm 27) I am just asking for the opportunity to learn and be shaped.

Kind regards,

Adam.

I think we've talked and you might remember me. I'm sure I can contribute in many ways.

I'm a regular cigar smoker, I'm 21.

I can provide a picture of me in a suit smoking cigars and drinkin whiskey.

I can provide you with a picture of my "vast" collection of alchohol.

I just do not have a mighty beard at the moment.

Count me in boys.

I've been in a bunch of groups, but this feels like no other. I really feel like the group could make a significant impact with it's set of skills and high quality. I can already see it.

I guess you will end up benefitting and transforming others in the end no matter what.

I have no intention to benefit in any form. Not really looking to "transform" others either, just looking for the prime, gentlemen of Hack Forums.

Glad to see you lead your own group Mr. Robot.

I have been smoking cigars for years, always found them more classy than regular cigarettes, nothing like le divin, tasting the last hits while the taste rushes through you. A true Gentlemen's hobby, if not extension of himself. As for myself, I work as a mobile phone repair technician in France. Helping people is my duty and making deals with clients is all part of the job, this is where people's skill come into play and give me this edge to control negotiations from building rapport to closing. I know how to pull the right ropes at the right time and that's all due to reading books on selling, eloquence and persuasion and a whole lot of training.

I find I would suit the group well with my contributions, I'd like to host classes on body language, salesmanship and other interesting aspects of self-development. As far as the main advised criteria in the thread I'm a regular cigar smoker and was born the 20th of February 1997, age 21.

Send me a PM for more information about myself, I'd be pleased to answer all of your questions even though we have talked in the past (Mr. Robot).

Why do I feel like half of the members just started smoking cigars, simply to join this group?

Anywho if you ever open a position for a 16-year-old, let me know. Noticed numerous underaged members listed, so that should not be an issue?

Anywho, blunts should count, shrug.

Wolf - November 3, 2018, 12:31 pm

I'm bald and my ginger beard is lacking, so I shave it off. I stopped smoking. I only drink rakija (known as raki in Turkey), I exercise and the only thing I smoke is weed. I'm looking for ways to improve my life and the life of others. That's the I've become a listener at 7cups. I'm trying to understand myself, as understanding myself will give me a better insight on how people are feeling and what they are thinking.

M?tt - November 3, 2018, 9:56 pm

Well I can't have a beard for the career that I have, cigars aren't sold where I live, whiskey is pretty much my go-to on the weekends if I'm not working, and I wouldn't consider my current dress attire a "suit" but more of a "professional dress" if you catch my drift. Either way, I'm way past 28 and am very familiar with being respectful to my peers. As for my activity, it becomes limited from time to time.

Vyxn - November 3, 2018, 10:25 pm

Love to be part of this group. Daddy pronouncer was in there. But sadly, I'm still minor so good luck to whoever gets pass in this recruitment.

Hi Mr. Robot,

I'm following you on HF from some weeks. I like how you post and how you talk to people. As you said: "We need to give respect to those who deserve respect", no words can be better placed somewhere.

I've never been into an HF group but I'm so excited to be, eventually, part of your group and I can swear that I'll give all myself to Cyber Gents.

If you need to know what are my "tech skills" feel free to PM me, I'll be happy to answer to all your questions.

Unfortunately I just shaved my beard, but I drink whisky and scotch and I smoke self-made Tobacco (not really a cigar, but better than normal cigarettes, that's sure).

I have no 1,000 for the test week, but if someone of you guys can sell me those bytes, I'll be happy to return them to you :)

Have a nice day man!

Demonata - November 4, 2018, 9:55 am

Hello Mr. Robot. I know you are a gentlemen. Talked to you in private and also the warnings you have done over scams in the forum. I smoke a cigar every January 1st to celebrate another year of helping my family and random strangers. Also I drink Gentlemen Jack and other high quality liquor. I also wear clothes without fancy wording and have suits as well. I hold the door open for people at my job. Also when I see an old person about to enter a building. My dad taught me to live like a gentlemen and continue too. I would fit right in with the group and I appreciate you starting it.

In the future we will have positions to take on younger members that are deserving of a position that have a strong business like attitude and wish to be self employed in the future.

If you fit that criteria and are active between now and when we start - sure.

Why should I be a part of this group?

I'm old, older than most of you friends. I've been sporting a beard of various lengths and styles for 10+ years now.

I sip whiskey in the evenings, although I do not smoke cigars, I do smoke my thc vape pen quite regularly.

I'm a classy person, I have a comfortable life and I invest in myself and my community to improve that life on a daily basis.

I grind really, really hard. I use my mind and my skills to set myself up for retirement long before most people would consider it, allowing myself and my family to peruse our hobbies and interests without restraints. Some of my stores have cleared 5k a day in sales, and that's just my online money.

I am steeped in crypto, mining, trading, and many platforms in the related field. I own a few suits, most of my daily wear, glasses, watch, rings, are worth more than most regular peoples car and rent payments.

I have netsec skills, the name Bob White is a legend among nerds. I also own a french bulldog, how much classier can you get?

I'm also heavily tattooed and modified.

That's very good conviction to abstain from the bad habit.

It only damages you in the long run even though alcohol may have some benefits.

I've read a cup of wine a night does help but I'd have to look further into the reasoning behind it.

So the risk/reward is high, better not to indulge in it again.

I am still decently new to HF, but plan on having my activity up again soon.
I would love the opportunity to be in this group.

You actually are a gentleman. Ive seen you have opposing political opinions, to opposing opinion on many thing, yet you never lost your composure. A quality that the world currently lacks, hopefully you share it with everyone.

Reckon I might have to partake in this endeavor soon; perhaps a toast will be needed? ?

Only had three cigars, but I would give for another. Calls for an occasion, for sure.
As for whiskey I prefer bushmills, I remember touring the factory over in Ireland and buying a bottle.
It's either whiskey or Guinness on tap.

Maybe we'll get along ?

Hi Gents,

I think this group would suit me quite rightly. As a general smoking, 22 year old bearded dragon that would love to smoke cigars most of the time but out of respect for my asthmatic partner in crime won't, I think that we would all get along quite nicely.

I recognise around 60%-75% of the names of current members, although we haven't had the chance to communicate due to my previous habit of being all "lurky" instead all "talky".

My beard is coming along nicely but still has some growing to do. I enjoy a good Whiskey, Brandy or Scotch before I hit the hay but good old fashioned Vodka is my poison at the moment.

I hope you consider me, as I intend to learn as well as preach in the hopes to teach. I'm also a bit of an IT(Information Technology not IT the clown) nerd...

Eternal peace,
D.C

I'm 23 years old and like helping people out. I both smoke and drink way 2 much. This group sounds intressting so if you samt too talk just send me a PM.

Pikachu - November 8, 2018, 4:36 am

I feel like i can learn from this group, i am however trying to represent myself in a more professional manner. I am also trying to dress better, that way i can actually find a better job a whole lot easier. I am willing to do whatever it takes to achieve my goals, and if i were to be accepted into this group, i feel like it would really help me out in a positive way, and help me acquire the skills i need to be successful in my life. And yes i am over 21, i am 24 years of age.

Hegodeath - November 8, 2018, 5:56 am

I like your mouth. now lets see what you got.

The only true requirement to joining is being of at least 21 years of age - above 23 I'll tell you that. If you have a better beard than I do, you will be added instantly. - I need to organize it, but I can't share an image like that yet.

If you can provide proof you are a regular cigar smoker you will be added instantly (likewise with pipe smokers) hey only the pipe? not the drugs? lemme add an image.(image had been deepdreamed for anon reasons, I believe you can still read it.)

I don't have 50 posts yet so I'd have to post it like this:

Code [img] imgur . com/8pac0fG.jpg[/img]

(I wrote don't tempt -me / HF / and my username(bottom left))(The dream wrecked my res)

If you can provide proof you indulge in the right types of alcohol you will be added instantly. Oh I indulge in all kinds of alcohol.

If you can provide a suitable image in a suit, with a cigar/pipe and a glass of whiskey - you will be instantly given password restricted area access. - I'll make an anon image of your request if I'll feel like it. do you want an image of my suit empty? I can arrange that quickly.
You caught me too high for this now. I have to be honest.

I can wear your user-bar you are not scaring me buddy, I wear bars everyday.

PEACE.

Hello,

My names Jamie I'm from Sydney Australia, I am Nearly 24 in January, I have been apart of this forum since late 2011 as mainly a lurker but this forum has helped me in lots of ways and I hope to think I have helped others as well, I don't smoke anymore but I do like a good few beers down at the pub with mates and I have quite a large selection of liquor in my cabinet..

I have been into computers since about 10-11 when I started playing Runescape then moved onto CSS/CSGO.

I enjoy helping others and being as respectful as I can.

Whether I am accepted or not I think what you stand for is fantastic.

Thanks for reading

Jamie

I never drink.

I never smoke.

I do play poker regularly. Mainly texas holdem, occassionally plo.

Please let me join, I've always wanted to be in an official group

Crypt - November 8, 2018, 12:44 pm

Seems like a very knowledgeable group filled with people that want to better themselves and their skills. I have been a member of HF for over a year now and don't intend on going anywhere. I first joined because I wanted to learn more about malware after watching videos on people being infected by RATs and keyloggers on Youtube and stayed because of the community and the many different topics I find interesting around the forum; SQLI/Forum hacking, Beginner Hacking section and a few others.

I am 22 and will be going back to college with the intent of getting my BA degree in computer science with a focus on cybersecurity. I also enjoy language learning which is why I am learning Russian and Spanish. That is just a little bit about me.

I think I could learn a lot being apart of Cyber Gents and it would push me to be better myself so I could share my knowledge with other members and prove my worth. I also think I would be a good fit because I not only share the same interests as other people in the group but have actual life goals that revolve around needing and wanting to be amazing in these specific areas, areas I'm sure fit this group very well.

Hope to be apart of Cyber Gents and if I don't get accepted now that's okay, I will improve myself and come back with a lot to show that I'd be a group asset. Thank you for taking the time to read all this, Mr.Robot ?

I do have a beard but I don't think it is better than yours though.

If you can provide proof you are a regular cigar smoker you will be added instantly (likewise with pipe smokers)

I used to smoke cigars (just the regular stuff that you find in Australia) I should probably start cigar smoking again, since I enjoyed it but damn.. They ain't good for health.

If you can provide proof you indulge in the right types of alcohol you will be added instantly.

I like whiskey the most but I can drink anything but wine.

If you can provide a suitable image in a suit, with a cigar/pipe and a glass of whiskey - you will be instantly given password restricted area access.

I don't really have anything to show since I am pretty damn ugly. lol

I'm 23 years old, and is currently taking an A.P degree in marketing management.

I am not applying for this group to find a meaning, I'm more into helping others.

I do BJJ, MMA, and Muay thai. I have ink on my whole upper body, from both my hands, and all the way to the top of my neck.

I've been playing poker for a living, but was forced to chill after my girlfriend got pregnant. I deem myself a gentleman, that has been on a personal journey here on Hackforums.

I'm currently trying to learn python coding, and have a general knowledge of pentesting.

I have a sharp beard, and always are well-dressed, with a fresh haircut every week.

Let's do this.

- A. I probably got you on the beard (Tell me a way I can prove it without giving you bio metrics and I'll do it.)
- B. I have a whisky bar bearing my last name in my city. (Don't want to give you my last name or city but just saying)
- C. Highland scotch is over rated give me the smokey peaty whisky from the isles anyday.
- D. I know the difference between a whisky and a whiskey.
- E. I don't smoke cigars but I do dip them in whisky and chew them.
- F. Jager IMO has great depth and I drink it like Scotch. On the rocks. (if you cringe at hearing this just try it)
- G. Glenfiddich is over rated.
- H. I got such a good beard I wax my eyebrow regularly.

I could make the suit/cigar/whisky pic happen to get access but I feel like that's a little too easy plus I feel like backing my beard.

keep in mind it's not length it's also the girth/density ?

Whisky>Whiskey in case that wasn't already a given for you.
