Thread: [Neodraxis \[UID=3891397\] Multi Accounting & Scamming](#)

Fortunate - November 4, 2018, 7:24 am

Another thread on this matter: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5840390>

So originally Mr. Robot got suspicious of a member called Neodraxis, who had suspicious name changes and impersonation history on HF.

We decided to dig in. It's weird that a somewhat weird new member joins the forum and is extremely active with freshly acquired awards.

User profile: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3891397> - Already has open deal disputes

Multi's that he scammed on (join dates are few months apart when they're closed):

Endire / Gamer Fusion - There's even a public dox on Endire from 2016, which confirms that we are talking about the same guy here.

.Defend
Hydraxus

Here's some weird stuff that got us suspicious

R3KT came out in 2017, although he seems to be very confident that there was no way to see all members that were R3KT. He joined in 2018.

Here's the proof:

Neodraxis has a link to his dribbble page on his profile. The site is down, but from the cached version you can see his name and previous work.

Here with the name and the work provided, you can match up some of the work he has done with his current design thread

This doesn't prove anything, but who really is Raymond Tong?

If you search "Raymond Tong", you can see what I'm on about.

On that thread:

Agonises Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Endire is a multi, I am really unsure if he has sold his account or is going on a scamming spree. I'll write down his previous hackforums he had.

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action...id=2858490> He is known to be called "Raymond Tong"
- Had it previously as his skype name

Proof he's Defend: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?ti...id49130034> Name: Raymond" Not a coincidence, trust me.

What connects all of the accounts?

All are designers, all share the same work, first and last name.

Also, if you go Raymond Tong's website: <https://raymondtong.webflow.io/> you can see the work on the design thread there.

You can see his Instagram and that he's 17 years old. What was the age of .Defend? He was 15 on 27th December, 2015, so born in 2001 just like Neodraxis.

About Hydraxus and the connection to Raymond:

Omniscient Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Irony. OP is the actual multi. I gave him a chance to return too but I suppose he wanted to burn the new account. Shame.

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action...id=3251473>

Also, his website is linked on his instragram: raymondtong.co which is <https://raymondtong.webflow.io>

After Mr. Robot and I confronted him, he started to spam all around Hack Forums.

Maybe you just should concentrate on hitting the weights.

See you soon.

Vanilla made a thread about this already and nothing was done lol

Yup took a bit to organize the posts but really.

He replied to my threads a bit weird and straight forward. I was only joking around about it to Fortunate because a lot of users wouldn't understand as his posts seem normal. I spent a lot of time on HF and felt something was off even though others would think i'm crazy for thinking so.

Because of that we took a quick look and left it as that (found his name and shit then stopped).

Then he commented on a thread talking about how there was never a page to see all r3kt members in one place. Of course this is true there never was a page to do that however he replied so confidently and r3kt was well out for around a year before he joined.

That got the discussion brewing again and only took a few minutes of digging further to find all the older accounts. I'm sure he has plenty more.

I confronted him as I thought maybe he bought his way back onto the forum by donating (he had around $600 in awards) but when I did he started spamming. This only proved that he wasn't allowed back on.

He used money he scammed to make his profile look pretty to scam more. The issue with graphic designers is they can run say 20 people around at the same time as if they are doing the work for $100 or even $1,000 jobs which means a huge amount being taken in comparison to the small amount donated back.

What do we have here.

Nicely done- appears the suspect has took a vacation ban.

That thread there he just denied and lied through his teeth which is probably why. We also wanted to prove who he was without taking into account any disputes or threads others have made when they are made poorly linking them.

Quote:What proof do you have exactly?

My thread that barely looks similar?

My name? You have no no solid evidence. You're running on assumptions and assumptions, if anything makes me sick it's this.

I've done absolutely no harm to the community and am new, donating and posting helpful information.

Can you link it? There was another one that I put on the post, but was made by Alpha, not sure if they're the same guys.

stackgod - November 4, 2018, 1:01 pm

Neodraxis Offline
[closed@HF:]

Well done detectives.

Zymase - November 4, 2018, 1:10 pm

Good stuff Fortunate.

And yes, Alpha is Vanilla

Pyro - November 4, 2018, 4:36 pm

Good job Sherlock ?

Nicely Done, Thank you to Omni, Mr. Robot and Fortunate for keeping the HF community clean.

Vyxn - November 4, 2018, 6:51 pm

I was too late on posting this one but I already spotted this guy.

Anyways, great work. ?
