Tax - November 4, 2018, 7:42 am

"If you had an extra $150 to spend on yourself every week, what would you spend it on?"

I'd just save it for later for my house. I'm pretty good/wise at spending my money as I have too much left overs already.

SIM-1349466 - November 4, 2018, 7:44 am

I'm not saying I would spend it on bytes, but I would spend it on bytes.

Really though, i'm not sure. I'd rather save it as I don't actually need/want anything rn.

- Z - - November 4, 2018, 7:47 am

I would just blow it on shoes, and get roses everyday for my gf.

Wolf - November 4, 2018, 7:47 am

I'd invest it in Anonutopia or in some smm panel as they are profitable.

So infact you would spend it on gambling? ?

b?xxy - November 4, 2018, 7:51 am

I would probably just spend it on food for the week honestly.

zeroday - November 4, 2018, 8:07 am

Cover my lunch when I'm out for the week and then save the rest

Headspace - November 4, 2018, 8:10 am

I'd upgrade my selection of cigars.

hi_man - November 4, 2018, 8:12 am

I'd prefer to save the money. but I wanted to spend it I shall spend on food.
Food is life

Nima304 - November 4, 2018, 8:17 am

$150.00 per week is not a lot of money, it probably wouldn't change my spending habits.

Katyuska - November 4, 2018, 12:28 pm

A few more cubes and puzzles each month. I limit myself to $50 or 4 cubes per month.

Demon Lord - November 4, 2018, 12:33 pm

I always wanted to own my own land, so I would probably save it and buy a few acres.

dontspamthisplease - November 4, 2018, 12:34 pm

I'd buy myself lots of books since I can't almost afford any right now

hiddenYEARLYplan - November 4, 2018, 12:40 pm

Probably some more pizza and beer

Bastille - November 4, 2018, 1:02 pm

Books about computing, and stuffs related to the same thing

V3N0M - November 4, 2018, 1:03 pm

Alcohol...Oh wait...I am already doing that. Well more alcohol.

metamorphosis - November 4, 2018, 1:05 pm

jesuschristisfake - November 4, 2018, 2:19 pm

What are your goals in life? Spend it on that boost - November 4, 2018, 2:22 pm

I'd personally save it or throw it into crypto..

Professional. - November 4, 2018, 3:32 pm

I'm a saver not a spender. I would probably save it up for a vacation or something in the future if i was going to spend it.

DashPHP - July 23, 2023, 3:08 am

Hmmmm

I would prob save partially and spend on high quality food on delivery.

Hungry4Knowledge - July 23, 2023, 4:01 am

Personal trainer. I'm starting to feel the age and lazy as fuck.

ChronoBiff - July 23, 2023, 4:17 am

My retirement. I don't think I'll want to work forever

Panda™ - July 23, 2023, 5:44 am

What I already do, invest it. If I don't need it right now I invest half and keep the other half in cash.

katia van dees - July 23, 2023, 7:47 pm

Id invest into the crypto market.

Spooky - July 23, 2023, 8:05 pm

Blockonome - July 24, 2023, 9:05 am

I have more than this available a week and spend it on my girl, dinners, clothes, home furniture....
Consumerism has consumed me.

ChronoBiff - July 24, 2023, 6:13 pm

I would take that money and invest it into stocks. Money that just sits in an account is doing nothing for anyone. Put it to good use and it will be there when I retire.

Biggs - July 24, 2023, 10:37 pm

Probably buy some virtual items with it, and donate a part.

Zan - July 25, 2023, 1:15 am

I would invest them into myself either in terms of personal development or simply financial investment for a better future.

Weekly investing into crypto and some other weeks spend it to shoes and watches.

Era643 - July 26, 2023, 8:13 pm

Either put it toward investments or get out of debt

biggerfigure - May 5, 2024, 1:55 am

Probably cc's turn it into $1500. CC's or crypto pumps

I think I would use the $150 to invest into a Crypto or Stock option. I haven't done much with either Crypto nor Stocks, but I'm at that stage in my life where I'm exploring different investment options... so I think I would start off like that.

TooBurnt - May 5, 2024, 3:57 am

That shit would get added to the adventure funds for each week.

L?G?ND - May 5, 2024, 4:12 am

I would most likely buy silver, and place it in the safe. That or save towards additional ammo and firearms.

Chung - May 5, 2024, 4:45 am

I'm not sure why that didn't cross my mind. Receiving $600 a month would cover my monthly vehicle payment.

Chapman - May 5, 2024, 9:54 am

Well, honestly speaking i will keep buying some potential crypto coins for long term holdings. I will DCA. I think the crypto is the future in coming days.

And yes, this one also lol. I am in huge debts right now though I am somehow making it day by day.

p m - May 5, 2024, 11:13 am

That's what I had each week to go to nothing after my budget. I just saved it each week, but this was before everything got so expensive. Now I don't save that. Once I get back to work, and make extra payments on my vehicle, then use that to pay off my wife's car faster, then we will be swimming in money! Considering we don't spend much money on things we don't need, mostly it's food. Although, there is a few things I've been putting off for a LONG while that I want, but not until I start my new job, will I be spending money on me aztecking7 - June 14, 2024, 3:08 am

I personally enjoy the lounge and market place. How about you?

Any recommendations for a hidden gem on the forum?

CINBUFF - June 17, 2024, 1:06 pm

Savings. Unfortunately. You never know when you'll need it again.

Deany - June 17, 2024, 2:26 pm

You bet your butt I'd be spending on weeb tings

Tyler? - June 17, 2024, 5:20 pm

I'd love to get out of my shitbox car lol.

630 - June 17, 2024, 5:50 pm

It would go to the bourbon fund... Or bank it.

Karma1234 - June 17, 2024, 6:23 pm

i am new here, i think i would buy a crypter because i need one.

gwiz - June 17, 2024, 10:16 pm

I can't do much with that, I'm pretty good at saving money but am always needing to spend it on stuff I actually need.

Net Hustler - June 18, 2024, 1:43 am

I cannot believe no one is saying weed I would spend mine on weed most likely and extra 150$ is extra bud to smoke and I wouldn't pass up extra bud

Basilisk - June 18, 2024, 4:09 am

Invest and gamble with memecoins, eventually it will be worth the hassle

jtmarrufo99 - June 18, 2024, 1:57 pm

I recently started making about $200-$300 a week nearly passively, and after the first few weeks of splurging on random crap like clothes and electronics I kinda got over it and am now saving. I am single and 22 so not really a lot to spend money on

D707 - June 18, 2024, 3:04 pm

Will spent it for watching weekend football, leave all the work behind and enjoy the life.

Chud - June 18, 2024, 8:38 pm

gamble all of the 150$

Absence - June 18, 2024, 10:48 pm

Philly Cheesesteaks, and soda.

And then maybe some hookers

Michael - June 18, 2024, 11:29 pm

Saving it for your house seems like a good thing to do, might do the same as well.

Or spend it sometimes on fun activities with friends.

squin - June 19, 2024, 10:52 am

I start off by paying my debts and that would take a while arstkrtx - June 20, 2024, 10:59 am

Pr0m3th3us - June 21, 2024, 6:17 am

Pay off debt. So I can get more debt.

Purgatory - August 9, 2024, 12:48 am

Gas money lmao, nothing particularly special I would buy. I would of course save the rest and put it towards something I needed.

Bastille - August 9, 2024, 12:51 am

My appartment, it's empty AF because I spent all I had on the renovation and I don't have enough for furnitures now. So I would say for furnitures

But sometimes I also realize that the only things I need are a computer and an internet access, as long as I have them, furnitures can wait
