Oh shut the hell up that isn't the point of this thread. I barely even use this website, it just so happens that no where else seems to have the entirety of the series I'm watching.

Yes

MasterAni.me son. Though, sometimes, the streams are buggy so I have to rely on KA.

This ^ came here to recommend it, it's so much better.

Get the movie files instead.

CR doesn't support the industry btw they only pay for the license
if you really want to support the anime industry, buy figs and shit like that directly from the company

I use kissanime regularly. Never been bothered with the ads as they never pop up while in the video.

Yuikoro - November 5, 2018, 4:58 am

Masteranime is a billion times better. I used to use kissanime, but once they basically fudged out the kissanime chrome extension I was out.

Also, I do both you understand the whole point of this thread is to discuss how trash KissAnime actually is?

Takehito Morokuzu - November 5, 2018, 9:17 am

Use ublock origin? Can't really complain since they use their own private servers which are fast and 1080p.

What I use myself though is animekaizoku, downloading is much better than streaming.
