Thread: [\$1400+ in 24 HOURS! \[ADULT CPA\]](#)

Frankey - November 5, 2018, 9:48 am

I've been preparing for this for a long time, and finally did it. About 24 hours ago I launched my (paid) campaign. I am promoting an adult dating offer, which I am not going to further talk about.

I've spent around $250 on my ad campaign and have earned $1440 through the affiliate network which I am using. Hereby a screenshot:

I am really happy! that's why I posted this here ;)

CC Trial submits.

So the user enters their credit card as age verification. (And then gets attached to a subscription or something I believe, not sure.)

Not only CPAHub has these offers, but there are also plenty of other networks with adult CC offers.
