Anyone reselling for him will get CLOSED. This is a warning to everyone involved in partnering with him. He continues to have fake vouches for his products. I'm done with it. Riyu is now closed too.

Who else?

And so if you're thinking about helping Vyrez by reselling for him. Don't do it. You will get CLOSED.

DOG - November 5, 2018, 1:34 pm

I mean not only Vyrez but all the closed members ?

You can't proxy sell for a closed or banned members anyway.

Pronouncer - November 5, 2018, 1:36 pm

Well its a rip then for half the sellers

Roytoy - November 5, 2018, 1:38 pm

Damn I see both of these members all over the marketplace. Hopefully no one was hurt by their products and if so I hope this puts and end to that.

Riyu_temp - November 5, 2018, 1:58 pm

But you're okay with Trappy and Bromden vouching for a scammer? You closed him and reopened him and he literally did the same thing as any ebook seller.

How about Meow with the multis? But whatever. We actually never fake vouched ever since you perm post banned me. You closed actual customers yesterday too. I never got involved in the beef between you and Vyrez either. I literally would just get on to deliver the product to people and that's it.

Go check the crypter section, VPN, tools, graphics, hosting and much more. You will see a bunch and bunch of longstanding projects.

Maybe but this user was banned for offering stealth PayPal accounts during which time new members posted on his thread vouching for the ebook. And it's in the ewhoring section, doubt so many people join just to search for paid methods in the ewhoring section, buy them and just leave HF afterwards.

Finally it happend. I really left this forum because of vyrez scam. I got my money back but it was long process.

What if vouch copies could be given to small group of experts? Like forum crew and etc?

Also big sellers could deposit some money and in case of scam those could be used to payoff victims. This will show real traders with real stuff and make marketplace a little safier.

Thanks to administration for stopping him!

Eh, in this scenario I'm not sure. The people who sold for Vyrez seemed to generally fall in the 'money hungry but no skill' category, I wouldn't expect them to be able produce their own content. And even then, it takes a special sort of douchebag to create the products that Vyrez was pushing, a sociopath with no moral compass whatsoever, so I don't think any of his resellers are even capable of trying to reproduce and sell the literal digital equivalent of dog shit that Vyrez was pushing on this forum.

Regardless though, Vyrez has been a thorn in the side of the marketplace for years and years. I'm happy to see action get taken against him.

Alright, I took it as a snarky comment, maybe I misinterpreted it.

Vyrez accepted sales using numerous payment methods, PayPal included. A lot of the scam reports against him involve the scammed user also initiating chargebacks through PayPal. If the payment was BTC, then you're right. But I'd imagine a majority of his sales, especially with resellers, went through PayPal.

Sorry for the initial hostility, I don't have a lot of patience for Vyrez and his minions.
