Thread: This gift card claim code has been redeemed to another account?

DeepHouse - November 7, 2018, 12:02 am

Hey, good day, I did a trade yesterday with the HF contract. I wanted to check the code for amazon.com today but I get the message every time: We had a problem redeeming your gift card. This gift card claim code has been redeemed to another account.

In my opinion, I have been scammed?

Happen - November 7, 2018, 12:03 am

Yes you have been, he claimed the card and sent you a used card.

Looks that way.. Why didn't you redeem as soon as you bought?

Who did you deal with? Should post a dispute.

I handle the deal off on discord, because he was from the same country as me. But we did the contract on HF and also have the AGC code in my inbox from HF

Upload the image to imgur and just remove http://www. part

So make it
Imgur.com/image

Instead of
<https://www.imgur.com/image>

Or just space out the link

Honestly it's your fault you got scammed.

Why would you deal with non-upgraded user that has 4 reputation?

Lol, I'm not a scammer.

Now you know that you should never deal with non-upgraded users. Find someone who is trustworthy.

I hope you do not notice my words that you are a scammer ( was not focused on you that you are ) but I mean generally to scam new people for a few bucks its just a lame action and have now also learned that I do not go with random people who have no scores

Thanks for your advice btw
