Thread: Making a steady 500-1k \$ Per Day

RamenField - November 8, 2018, 4:59 pm

Hi! This post isn't just about me being pretentious. I've been a part of this forum now since 2011 and never really earned any bigger amounts of money. Sure, I've had account shops and other things that have been somewhat profitable. Starting this week this is the amount I make per day on paxful. Who knows if it will last long. At least I've received further motivation to continue. Took me a lot of time to perfect certain things. Sure, it's BH ish but what are you gonna' do.

If you want proof PM me and I'll show you. Not that it's what this is about. Thanks for stopping by ?

Good job! I'm hoping I can someday make at least $5 a day. It would be helpful all on it's own, haha.

Make sure you don't quit what you are doing to pursue that income further. It may not last forever. Regardless, good job.
