ngu <Another dispute someone made 2 years ago> Said his account got hacked.

Gave him the benefit of the doubt to send my bitcoin for his AGC first and he completely Ghosted me.

The rate was 70% in Bitcoin for his $270 AGC. He stopped replying after I sent the bitcoin to his address.

I just found out he scammed in the past before and he used the excuse of his account being hacked (TWICE). How he is not banned

I don't understand. I lost $190 and he took advantage of me being a new member.

You should know that regular members are easy target.

All deals require a contract.

edit: Just saw you did a contract

stupiidkevin - November 8, 2018, 5:44 pm

There is a contract. He just ghosted me.

He resolved the last one, maybe he is busy or something.

Hopefully he will indeed pay you back, I would also say add this to the deal dispute db,

<https://hackforums.net/disputedb.php>

I'm still a big fan of the legacy database.

This wont get resolved. Something seemed up when i PM'd him. He completely ignored my messages as soon as i brought up a MM/he goes first. Looks like an exit scam, sent him a couple messages and he kept reading and ignoring. Sorry for your loss OP, i dont think you'll be getting it back.

stupididkevin - November 9, 2018, 9:51 am stupididkevin - November 9, 2018, 1:18 pm

Just found out about this thread after I had made payment, why has there been no action taken?

This is almost a month old now.

wortharush - November 30, 2018, 4:59 pm

someone please ban this guy, hes scammed multiple people now and is getting away with it.

reBELLYus - November 30, 2018, 5:01 pm

Sorry for your loss here. I hate to see individuals ripped off; especially when it comes to $100+ deals.

PerfectStorm - November 30, 2018, 5:03 pm

Don;t think there are. Any update on this?

The Health Inspector - November 30, 2018, 6:02 pm

Yeah here's my thread <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5914017>

Just surprised there was no action taken after this one. He had a contract and everything.

stupiidkevin - December 1, 2018, 1:44 am nothing has changed. lol this website doesnt punish.

By the way. he has another account on hack forum btw. So banning that account would be pointless.
