I am playing on EUNE, and sometimes EUW and every single game there are people wishing diseases and telling you to suck their dick and whatnot.

And I am talking about Platinum/Diamond ELO.

Is this only happening in these two servers or are people starting to go nuts over a game?

Formant - November 9, 2018, 7:29 am

Yes, welcome to EU servers my friend.
We give no fucks.

Temp - November 9, 2018, 8:45 am

I'm high diamond and don't see it that much in NA because reports actually work over here. Not sure for EU but if someone triggers blacklisted words or phrases and are reported, the system automatically bans them.

It probably doesn't exactly work that way but if you say certain keywords, you will most likely get banned after a few reports

Don't take offence, but the NA server is full of hypersensitive SJWs who can't handle a little flame. It's actually disgusting.

EU have a reputation for being toxic, it's just that people here really don't give a shit. I don't think people spam reports that trigger chat restrictions like they do in NA, flaming is not a big deal. Same goes for people's in-game names.

I've played on 5 servers this year and nothing really comes close to the toxicity on EUW :')

That said though, I would rather have someone perma flame me and play, than have someone ignore chat and just passively play solo, perma split pushing by themselves or whatever they might do to throw the game.

EU: "fuck you trash dog n-word" then carries the game, gets 3 honors, no reports.

NA: "you're trash don't talk" is carrying the game, team responds by going afk, grieving, and then reports the player who is carrying cus "they said something mean". Those same people don't get punished for grieving in but instead get an instant feedback report because of someone else's typing. disgusting.

i got my first chat restriction on na by typing "this team is dog. open" in all chat (team was like 1/15 in the first 10 mins). no swear words, nothing else, just that.

you also gotta realize that on NA, you're all playing with mostly american people. maybe some LATAMs but that's it. there are 50 EU countries.... so yeah, racism is going to be a lot more rampant as well. like, if someone starts typing in french in my game, they better prepare to have their asshole gaped. it's not like i have a personal vendetta against french people, its just that that's the way things are lol.

Lion - November 9, 2018, 11:57 am

Nope, mostly just people grieving at I say one thing to them. "Why the hell would you fight that?" Ahri runs it down

Facts, I've played on EUW for acouple of weeks, toxic as fuck, but never been grieved only read flame, in NA if you type they won't type back... they'll put it in their gameplay, like not healing or pressing s and watch you lose a 1v1.

"Flamed" my support 10 minutes in, then she started to contest me for every CS, watches me 1v2 and win, legit hard carried that game and had players(plural) say "report cait please", only ONE soul said "who cares she carried"

Skepticism - November 9, 2018, 2:23 pm

Welcome to the EU servers, my friend. LoL has a toxic community all-in-all, but EU catches it the worst - I've noticed.

Not gonna lie, I have so much fucking respect for EU servers lmao. The toxicity is actually insane and the players who keep braincells there are amazing as well. Playing on NA, I can barely light flame inting retards without getting banned myself because the troll is the victim. I would not mind moving to EUW at all lmao lysgets - November 9, 2018, 4:20 pm

This gaming is deadening. Riot is trying to make it a sport, no fun any more.

The_Right_Stuff - November 10, 2018, 9:25 am

In NA I got perm banned on 2 accounts and my current NA account got muted because I played at 3am and kept getting the same 3 Chinese idiots in my games and pretty sure they were win trading and they just kept flaming me and I say in chat to report them and i get muted I appeal mute and they tell me your last 5 games you were reported in 4 of them so maybe your being mean to people. I reply its the same people reporting me every game and they say THAT SHOULDN'T HAPPEN.

NA = you get banned if you fart and it offends people.

China/Korea = You can threaten to murder people and no ban even win trading is only punished if its intense and long term reported for months.

LAN/EU = Barely anyone reports anyone

I got a punishment on one account I was boosting once that was already bad standing because I go into ranked and there was a Tahm Kench support Plat 5 who swapped to smite at last second and I wasn't paying attention he smite stole my red then followed me around eating jungle camps just before they were smiteable (and if you smite as ur ally eats it ur smite goes on cd but it doesn't hurt the jungle camp, maybe thats fixed now though)

Then he says in all chat at like 4 minutes wow Shyvana is AFK she has 0 farm at 4 minutes. And then end of game I get reported for inting by him and I got punished. Because I was level 1 to his 2 and he was Tahm kench who can steal jungle camps easily he really screwed me. At the second camp I tried to smite when it got low and I noticed the smite while Tahm eats bug and its cancer.

Any time you see a plat 5 player in ranked you know its gunna be a bad game. I lost my last 2 promo games on my smurf because of Plat 5 Teemo, then a Plat 5 Shaco next game and ended in gold 2 :(so now I have to play another 15-20 games to get it into Plat in next 2 days.

Jaatinen - November 11, 2018, 5:56 am

I play on EUNE (Plat 3 on series atm) and I only find people are toxic when someone "feeds" (dies more than 3 times on lane etc.).

Also I've noticed that players are very humorless. Cracking a joke makes people mad Imfao.

I like how you fucking think. Everytime I see someone with a plat border in my game i mute all and pray that they dont have 3 chromosomes speaking of which, i just got a perm ban today so that's real great lol also i have 2 accs with leaverbuster which i gotta grind out....

`KSI - November 17, 2018, 3:06 am

It's always fun to flame. Better to vent out your frustration rather than hold it in.

That's how school shooters are made lol.

Edit: I should know,i have 6 perma banned accounts

It's happens in all regions, i'm diamond in LAN if you don't do as they said they'll wish cancer.

I hope you realize that you're one of the contributors to the plat phenomenon. People get boosted to platinum v/diamond v and they don't care because they can just show off their border. They are naturally incompetent and horrible, so they just troll in order not to reveal their incompetence, or hurt their fragile egos.

ChhivS - November 19, 2018, 4:23 pm

Well, explains why the LoL community is killing League.

tristeville - November 20, 2018, 1:47 pm

I don't understand why people flame in the first place if they're actually trying to win.

I get that you're frustrated and you need to vent.. but from a strategic point of view you only tilt yourself along with your team mates. If you're going to flame, at least give advice on what they could do better in the future.. As a college basketball player, I always have observed that the teams who kept their head cool usually were the ones who had more stable performance overall..

When I'm frustrated at a player i'll usually vent on PM to my duo Q friend or i'll say it IRL on discord or something where my team can't hear. After cooling down I suggest what they could do better, if they choose to be toxic I just /mute all and move on from there. Ever since I stopped raging and tilting myself I was able to go from D5 to D3.

Velma - November 20, 2018, 1:49 pm

In any community there will always be a toxic bunch of people ready to ruin others peoples day.

mischa23v - November 30, 2018, 10:51 am try to say things out loud instead of writing them, that way you get to relieve stress but not get in trouble for it

Spaark - December 1, 2018, 12:50 am

I live in the OCE region... and honestly the community doesn't seem that bad. imo CS:GO and the likes are far worse when it comes to shit talk. But hey, I don't consider people typing in text chat all that offensive.

Every server, people in general are toxic, they let their daily frustration out on players that they play with.

?lex - January 24, 2019, 3:14 am

Decided to play a couple of games in the new season just to regret it immediately.

The game is going down. It's impossible to have fun anymore. Sad.
