Thread: Scammed by Momoshiki Otsutsuki UID=883840 on refund 0.027133 BTC

TCP - November 9, 2018, 11:29 am

Contract:

<https://hackforums.net/contracts.php?action=view&cid=14153>

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5838614&pid=57824514#pid57824514>

I sent him 0.027133 $173,3 in total to solve this dispute(worth 0.016), but he did not remove the dispute from the database neither set it as "Resolved"

I had to contact a staff member only to get it closed because it was resolved

He agreed to close it and remove all the content, on skype, in the first contract:

He didn't, then after a day(or so) he adds me back on discord and asks for more money:

At this point I sent him $20 extra, for the same reason stated above, to remove/close all the content of the dispute

But he didn't, I tried to get in contact with him again since he ignored me on HF, he just kept blocking me

So today I decided to open a dispute on this to see if he stopped ignoring me...and as I thought he pmed me, I reminded him of what he owes me and he didn't do, the end result of this conversation was this message:

He tried to get even more money from me

Then he blocked me again

Hence I decided to open this dispute thread for his dishonest revenge behaviour

I will close and resolve the dispute once he does what he promised to do, don't care if I may be in the wrong here, he still did not respect his word

Momo in case you want to solve this add me back on discord else remain in your pettiness

Damn, that's a new way of extortion I've never thought of. Hope he comes to his senses and just removes it. He does not benefit from leaving it up lol.

Hello, what you payed me for was not to simply pay me back for you scamming me but to delete the thread and content to make it all go away and make it seem like you never scammed here on site without a care not to just simply resolve the thread which I would've done.

Nor did I ask you for more money but you insisted to pay me more to delete it once again but we agreed on you never scamming again.

You care so much about a word but you scammed me and gave me your word that you wouldn't scam, the irony right?

PerfectStorm - November 9, 2018, 12:31 pm

Scamming a scammer still makes you a scammer i wouldn't be proud of that since you both will end up getting closed

Before you say you don't care if you you will Smd you trailer trash fuck. You don't understand the situation you're only posting here to boost your posts up. Really sad tbh. I advise you to logout from HF until you can actually contribute to the site without leaving BS posts wherever you lurk. Have a nice life and I hope you die as well my friend (;

I understand the situation, it's just funny that you decided to finally resolve the dispute after he posted on your recent marketplace thread. Don't agree to a deal if you ain't gonna fulfill your end.

I'm taking about my dispute against him. He only opened this dispute because I didn't delete my thread about him after he gave me back money he stole from me. So if I marked the dispute between us as resolved he'd close this.

Waiting for OP

As the dispute was set Resolved in the database this contract has been resolved and therefore this dispute, I'll close my thread
