Thread: Upgrade Sale and Price Changes

Omniscient - November 10, 2018, 1:03 pm

This weekend we're working on adding Stripe as a payment option and member will be able to upgrade with Credit Cards. We will also be offering subscription based L33t. Be aware that the BEST deal will be to pay with crypto for a one-time payment. Those choosing to do subscriptions will only save money in the short-term.

L33t is likely to be $30 for one-time payment and $20 for 6-month subscriptions. That's with Stripe. If you pay with crypto it will be slightly reduced.

I figured since this is going to be active within a few days that it's a good time to offer an upgrade sale.

So those who want to get upgraded at the best possibly price. Now is the time.

$20 L33t
$40 r00t

<https://hackforums.net/upgrade.php>

Offer will be removed on Monday.

Thank you.

When you got no spare $$ left and just decided to upgrade for r00t next month.
Rip me :)

Bezo - November 10, 2018, 1:05 pm

Great deal on the upgrades.

Is this the first time since upgrade was limited to crypto that actually cash is accepted (credit)?

Mr. Robot - November 10, 2018, 1:06 pm

Really nice to see - hopefully we see some upgrade contests on HF in the mean time.

Frankey - November 10, 2018, 1:06 pm

Nice! I think that by adding credit cards as a checkout option we'll see a lot more upgraded users.

Will it also be possible to buy awards through Stripe? Or will they stay crypto only? Just wondering.

Banter. - November 10, 2018, 1:08 pm

a very nice addition, i have seen several members ask about CC payments so it will will be nice to see a increase in upgraded members.

Great update omni

Makaveli The Don - November 10, 2018, 1:09 pm

Exciting stuff Omni. This is a heck of a deal and stripe will definitely be a good thing. Get upgraded people, it's the best thing ever!

I will not be accepting credit cards (Stripe) for anything except the L33t upgrade. Awards, stickies, r00t, and any other payments on the site will be crypto only. I want to offer credit card option for new members to get l33t who might not yet be familiar with crypto or the community.

Aha, got it. I think that's the best way to keep it either way.

Vince - November 10, 2018, 1:19 pm

Aw kinda sad that you're not accepting Stripe for awards :(

But I can see why though, a lot of money you could potentially lose if people dispute payments.

SIM-4018496 - November 10, 2018, 1:20 pm

still for the root upgrade, its still require to have more then 100 reps right?

Cryptic™ - November 10, 2018, 1:22 pm

Darn. Kinda sucks how old members in UB3R can't upgrade to R00T. Kinda not fair in a sense since UB3R members have been here longer and get left out of certain features. But I get that whole "general mentality of UB3R members" thing. Sad how a few can ruin it for the rest. lol

It was a problem before having members donate for awards then 3 months later they would reverse it. I can't operate that way.

Correct.

If any other members are interested in getting upgraded to r00t. PM me. You must meet the requirements. Be an active member. No scam reports.

Ohh you are right. 250+ Posts won't be enough to get the upgrade :(will need 99 more Rating.
Anyways can't thank Cryptic enough for the offer.

Someday I will have my 100+ reps and buy the upgrade.
Discovering this forum, Getting help from amazing users and actually starting to post has made me a lot more confident. And because of that, I don't mind spending a little more on getting the upgrades :)

Membership model is better for the site as it will continue to generate money from users.

Just look at the VPN market on HF most go out of business within a year because they sell lifetime for dirt cheap and can't pay bills later on due to lack of sales.

The same kind of person that pays $100 a month for a phone plan to get the latest flag ship smart phone for $0 on a 3 year contract.

The average cell phone bill in Canada is 80-$120 a month.

You save a lot more money buying the phone your self up front and picking a cheaper plan
