NOT Dropshipping, eWhoring, Silent mining, affiliate marketing, gambling, ads, surveys, faucets or any other bullshit method. This is the real deal. I have personally made over $30,000 in passive income over two months from this. It is 100% legal and moral. (If you are looking for not-so-moral methods, review my other threads.)

If this doesn't make you money I will issue a full refund.

Mate.. oh you. Review the messages in the GC. I've been mentoring people since last night and asking who would like to go next. Your failure to respond to these does not warrant a refund. Also, salestrashing instantly disqualifies you from a refund, especially when you're not even salestrashing the right thread. You haven't bought this product, don't trash it.

I'm going to be nice and not disqualify you from a refund for the simple fact that you're new to the forum.

I've helped many people and this is apparent in the changing attitude of my customers. You have to follow though with everything. Don't get mad at me due to your failure to follow directions. This has worked for multiple people, and made them a lot of money.

Not trying to sound rude bro, but STOP posting on this thread, your messages have NOTHING to do with this product as you haven't purchased it. Please only respond further in DM. Well, it may require KYC depending on how you choose to go about it but I can give you personal guidance on how to avoid using your full name =)

Unfortunately I wouldn't see any marketing potential in this, as it doesn't depend on selling stuff to people. However, you could definitely use the skills that you will learn to sound very sophisticated.

I'd like to thank Fzsix for giving me the opportunity to review this ebook. To start off, I can say that the information in this ebook has the potential to make you a lot of money. For the most part, this method is about as auto-pilot as you can get without having a sugardaddy or sugarmomma. With all of that being said, you will want to still be careful with how you use the information in this book. As with ANY investment, whether it is $1 or $10,000, it is always good to do your due diligence and research everything ahead of time. The main method contained in this ebook is actually something that I am very familiar with already, or at least something similar. I have turned investments of $10,000 in to $30,000. Not to say that there is not a potential for losing money, because there absolutely is however a LOT of that risk can be mitigated by doing your research ahead of time.

For the writing in the book, i'd rate it a 10/10 as far as clarity and information. It is very easy to understand. I'm sure if you gave a monkey a computer, some start up funds, and this ebook, the monkey would be able to follow the directions and make some money. That is really how easy this is. As far as the methods, i'd rate the primary method 9/10, and the secondary method a 6/10. For the primary method, there is no way for this to become saturated so you do not need to worry about that.

tl;dr

Great ebook and great primary method, just do some research after reading the book.

Having a little bit of capital will help. You don't need a crazy amount of money. I would recommend to have at least $50 to play with (You won't be spending it)

Absolutely no gambling or affiliate marketing. Will update the topic post with that.

Besides, those aren't really money makers. I stand by name on here, so I only sell actual, viable and effective methods.

Also, you may be glad to hear that this method can't be saturated, it's not possible.

A little bit of a startup investment is advised but not much. You are able to get your investment back at ANY time you want as well.

Investment required is minimal, but the more money you have to play with, the more profit you can make.

Keep in mind you won't be buying tools, software etc or anything like that so you can get your money back at any time.

When you purchase, you will automatically get the methods. However, mentorship can be done over any IM client of your choice.

Thanks!

The benefits obtained with the methods are paypal or btc?

• Enlil Wolf • - November 13, 2018, 8:50 am

Hope you don't mind me asking these questions because I am pretty sure, most of your 'potential buyers' would want them asked anyways.

As for me, I like to be sure-footed before I move into anything. Hence the list of questions. So let me ask them:

- 1) How much time is needed daily?
- 2) How much investment is required to be earning as you did in your past 2 months?
- 3) Is this something, where you could be earning daily?

Regards.

Technically you could get PP or BTC but it's based on Cryptocurrency income. I can include PP options though.

I bought the book

This gives me writing comment.

After 5 minutes i understood the book is not for everyone.

NOT easy (People going to school for this job and living for this)

NOT safe (You can lost your investment when you sleep.)

Impossible to earn money without experience.(When he sold it he told you don't need any experince.)

Seller is rude.

REFUND policy is if you lose your money you could get your the book money.

There is not any autopilot or for everybody.

He is Threatening me in the PM.(He is Threatening me with banned from forum).

One words From seller: You are a child. You are going to get banned unless you edit that post.

If i couldn't make comment about which is i bought item. I dont have to stay in this family.

Are you kidding me? I'm not threatening you. YOU ARE BREAKING THE RULES OF HACKFORUMS. You will get banned for salestrashing here. I am telling you this to help you. You are so immature it absolutely astounds me.

Besides the fact that your English is horrendous to the point that I don't believe you could even properly interpret the methods, you haven't even tried them.

For those wondering, the user looked at the eBook and without even trying the mentorship, he told me that he was too scared to do it and wanted a refund. I include a refund policy for all of my customers, and I have no problem following through with this. However, this user flat out refused to even try the method.

You say easy = it is not easy.

You say for everybody = it is not for everyone.

You say You don't need experince = People going to school for this job.

in your opinion every comment has to be positive.

I bought the book and I wrote my opinion.

If I wrote pozitive thinks it's oke otherwise I will be salestrashing?

I tried to fix the problem in PM but you were rude and threatening.

Also i know HF rules I have been member since 2012.

Theocritus - November 13, 2018, 11:11 pm

Before I begin my review, I would like to thank you for giving us ("Appraisers"), the opportunity to review your eBook.

Product: [>>\[BITCOIN GOD\]\[HOW I MADE \$30,000 IN A MONTH\] \[REFUND AVAILABLE\] AUTOBUY<<](#) by "Fzsix"

This eBook consists of 1 main method and 5 pages,

The layout and grammar of this eBook are overall good, and I saw few errors throughout.

In this eBook you will have 1 main method to read through and hopefully make money out of. There are technically "bonus" methods in this eBook, but they are frankly common knowledge for anyone not new to a forum like this one.

Today I will be reviewing the contents of the eBook ONLY as I have not taken the time to try out the mentorship that OP offers with his premium product version.

Without wasting your time, I will right away say that this method is based on crypto trading, as should be expected by looking at the above sales thread. You will get pages of information on how you can generally trade/exchange crypto and hopefully make money off it. The only content in this eBook that is original in some way is where you are told to find the calls and information about what currencies you might want to invest in etc. it is not some secret, well-hidden place, but not a place new people in this scene would normally check either in my opinion.

Now it is clear to me that this eBook is very much geared towards beginners in the crypto trading scene as many of the things told to you in this eBook are things people already in this industry would know full well. There are no in-depth advanced trading techniques covered in here as again, this is not meant for advanced or intermediate traders at all in my opinion. The trading advice you get is all fine and good, but not something you would not already know unless you are quite new to this.

I do appreciate the honesty in the eBook at the very least where OP says that you should expect to lose some and win some and that you are far from guaranteed profits at any point. You can, of course, make a lot of money very quickly and easily with trading, but that's largely up to your own skill and persistence. As a fairly experienced trader myself, I can see some value for beginners here as I mentioned before. But I would really have wished OP included another few pages at least, with more tips, tricks as well as his own experiences to provide more value to anyone but the beginners as well.

Now as said, I did not try out OP's personal mentoring, so I cannot say if he provides a lot more detail and in-depth learning via said mentoring, but from the eBook alone you at least do not really get it.

The pricing of this eBook is not that bad as it sits in the lower end of pricing at this point. If you were to buy this eBook though, I would advise you try out the premium version if anything, as I believe that will bring you more bang for your buck, so to speak.

Final Thoughts

If you are brand new to the crypto/trading scene then I can see you getting some value out of this eBook/mentoring. Otherwise, though this is not an eBook I think you will benefit much from if you are a trader already and have some experience.

If you are new to all this though I would say the premium version holds the most value of the two, and I would be cautiously positive towards a purchase in that case.

Well, he made $30k in 2 months. And it's not $30k a month.

Based on what he's selling, he can't guarantee you that. However, you can make a profit if you are serious about it and willing to put in work. Refer to the vouch review left by 'Theocritus' and his experience but the main catch is - his mentorship will be the thing that will bring you those huge $ if you follow them.

Because you're going to sell a method that makes you $30k a month for $25. You're literally scamming the community.

I've bought enough e books here to know that every claim is photoshopped, false, or from a blackhat method that you're not going to include.

Is it? And how would you know this without actually owning the product? What if it is a method that cannot be saturated? You don't know. Don't go around putting reviews up on products that you don't own. I've done over thirty sales on this product, and the people who I am personally mentoring are doing very well.

But you wouldn't know because you're pissed off enough to go on a forum and write negative reviews of a product that you've never even seen.

But the answer to my question remains the same, does it not?

What are you basing your evidence off of, in relevance to this product specifically?

Nothing. You haven't even seen it. You are basing your answer off of your own presumptions (with OTHER vendors).

This would be understandable if you purchased another one of my products and it was bad. Then you can make presumptions about the other products. However, you are presuming off of other products from other people.

Not my kind of rationale.
