Thread: [Scammed by ?Mr Blade™ \[\$50 - Web Development\] \(1534418\)](#)

EDIT: I opened a contract pls no delete

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1534418>

Going to make this straight-forward and short as I'm done dumping time into this bullshit situation.

Basically the deal was a website, mobile version & admin panel for $100. 50/50 money split.

He told me like 2 weeks or something maybe a week I can't remmeber. A month later and literally nothing has been done. Pretty fed up with dealing with this shit and really just want a refund so I can find someone else who can actually make what I want.

I drew pictures in paint of exactly what I wanted, every single page and detail was layed out so it was very clear what I wanted. I even drew out the design for every mobile page aswell. After all this and showing him the pictures and then getting his approval like 10 different times he proceeds to google "wordpress themes" and sends me google links asking which one I want. This shit really pisses me off I'm paying for a website not a free Wordpress theme what a joke.

Anyways if you want to read through all the screenshots be my guest, I'm just putting this out there just so when people search his UID before they deal with him they can see the proof that he's not actually a web developer.

All I want is a refund and all this gets deleted Mr. Blade. What a waste of time..

Next time does not pay a developer for only $ 100 ..
The scam was so predictable ..

Frankey - November 11, 2018, 11:06 am

The contract is not active. So I think this thread will be closed.

I don't know anything about this contract system I didn't even realize it existed until I saw the pinned thread.

I've been doing this website shit for a longgg time. I've had some really crazy shit made for <$100. Some people genuinely enjoy coding and don't like fucking price raping. What I'm asking for isn't worth more than $100. I basically want a website cloned then simple alterations made. If anything I'm overpaying.

I understand But next time go find a coder some elsewhere like fiverr example, cause tbh to many ppl here just wanna earn quick & fast they don't give zero shit about your project, only your money.
