Are these stolen/cracked accounts?

Each account is pulled by me, that's why I'm offering a 2 month warranty on all accounts. Although there is a limit on how many times you can set as your home xbox per year. I usually use all of these up so that I'm stuck with all the games and nobody can set as home xbox until next year.

Novaz1337 - November 15, 2018, 10:33 am

I'd take a vouch copy if interested.

This is new to me as I just recently purchased my Xbox literally 2 weeks ago... If I understand correctly, they only allow you to swap into another account up to "4" times before you can log back into your personal account? Otherwise you will be stuck with that accounts games?

Swap as in, Set as home xbox and Remove as home xbox. Once all 4 swaps are used you will need to wait until next year to swap again.(your stuck with those games for a year)
