Thread: anyone useing kik ? I can't find good traffic source for kik

hellohy9999 - November 15, 2018, 1:38 am

Hello there,

I have tried many kik traffic sites but they don't work anymore. I can't get much traffic. Can anyone please tell me a good traffic source for kik?

I doubt anyone would give you unsaturated websites if they can milk off of it. You should try and find sites yourselves.

You SEing have to be better than your traffic I think. What are you going to do with a great traffic with a poor SEing? (Nov 19, 2018 04:01 AM)Nachzehrer Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I doubt anyone would give you unsaturated websites if they can milk off of it. You should try and find sites yourselves.

I second the member that has posted above me. Also I want to tell you this: Your SEing have to be better than your traffic I think. What are you going to do with a great traffic with a poor SEing?

im getting traffic from kik using google only also if you arent getting enough traffic from it maybe its your tagline , also if you aint makin enough sales maybe its you rethink what you are doing wrong change is imminent , always use a twist and always test something you have never done before so many angles and possibilities out there and there is no one out there who could best help you but yourself
