What subject is the most interesting for you?

John J. Rambo - November 16, 2018, 4:51 am History ! Always been my favourite subject pms - November 16, 2018, 4:53 am

As John J. Rambo said, history really interests me too, so much we dont know about.

Zombie [?] - November 16, 2018, 7:14 am

Geography is my all time favorite

I definitely like History. I love learning about our past and how we've come to be.

Nima304 - November 17, 2018, 8:43 pm

History is fantastic, especially military history. I absolutely love it.

reBELLYus - November 17, 2018, 8:46 pm

Finance and GSCM are two favorites of mine.

Soul - November 19, 2018, 12:37 pm

Social studies/history classes.

Gerymc - November 20, 2018, 3:34 pm

I personally really enjoy math and computer science.

History and literature have always been my least favorite subjects. I don't mind learning about interesting things like world wars, but learning about things like Mesopotamia makes me want to die.

Pronouncer - November 20, 2018, 3:36 pm

Honestly oddly enough math was my favourite.

Ahmad - November 20, 2018, 6:58 pm

Math and physics are the only subjects i like

Kuri - November 24, 2018, 9:58 am

I personally enjoy math and science the most.

?elevision - November 24, 2018, 9:59 am

Trigonometry, Algebra, and Statistics.

OrdyHD - December 16, 2018, 8:22 pm

Computer science, I loved the lessons on relational databases ahah

Narcient - December 19, 2018, 10:29 am

My favourite subject is Physics as it always keeps me interested kookur - December 19, 2018, 10:30 am

Computer science, always fun to study.

Deathx103 - December 20, 2018, 9:27 pm

all of my classes have interested me so far (psych, eng, math, criminal justice) except for composition classes lol plum - December 21, 2018, 12:06 am

Is criminal justice a lot of work that a lawyer might do?

iamJosh - December 21, 2018, 12:56 pm

Economics and CS are my two favorites, they are good subjects and upcoming in the world

rachelcummings - December 30, 2018, 9:34 pm

Literature. :v I don't know why I can't write all day lol

Slatim - December 31, 2018, 3:36 am

Finance and GSCM are two favorites of mine.

Teddybear2018 - January 18, 2019, 2:40 am

History and computer science ! Always been my favourite subjects

Ram - January 18, 2019, 10:41 am

Anything related to computers that enforces practical usage. Anything that includes theory but no practical usage = TRASH AND WASTE OF TIME

xomk - January 20, 2019, 2:54 pm

Economics, it is practical and can be used every day.

Bob the Builder - September 18, 2020, 4:17 am

Biology has been my favourite subject but I didn't get any good marks in this subject but I learned a lot from this subject ethellooking - September 21, 2020, 12:35 am i like best subject is english , because i very like english,english very interesting.if you are someone who want to do business you learn english

I like biology, it is unique because of the complexity of living things, and it is about how all living and nonliving organisms interact with each other.

Biology is the science of life. I also like this subject. In biology, it is interesting to study organisms, from their structure to their function, origin, and their growth.

alae - September 30, 2020, 12:52 pm

I would say Physics and history, I really like those subjects!

mike.vronsky - October 1, 2020, 1:40 am

I like programming subjects. Mostly, Computer Subject is my favorite subject. I have learned a lot and it always excites when I am learning something new.

Bob the Builder - October 1, 2020, 1:51 am

Computer IT because it is very informative. You have all knowledge and information about technology. It updates you about the world and today's technology.

AmineB - October 1, 2020, 6:20 am

I am interested in Political Science. I am an avid reader of political science books and I really enjoyed it when I read political science books and listen to political science debates.

Zencypher - October 1, 2020, 8:51 am

History is very entertaining for me, networking and biology too.

davieb - October 1, 2020, 3:34 pm

Always loved maths in school and as I got older into my mid teens I became obsessed with physics, the only 2 subjects I was really into. As I got into my late 20s and early 30s though I read tons of books on almost every genre you can think of and got big into history and religion. Reading now is my go-to and try and get through at least a book a week :-)

Free Kurdistan - October 1, 2020, 3:43 pm

Probably psychology. Everything about it is fascinating and the more you read the more your mind gets blown by interest and knowledge.

OnePiece - October 6, 2020, 1:17 am

I enjoy Science and English classes the most. Science fascinated me ever since I was a kid until I went to college. Second is English since I love reading books and learning new things. Math is my least favorite.
