Thread: Give Me a Listen

CueBasE - November 16, 2018, 12:05 pm

This was an Idea I came up with two days ago. I went back and completed it today.
I played everything live on this track myself.

It sounds alright, it just needs a vocalist and you're good. :)

Lol remember when I said I hated EQing drums?

This was one of those days. If you heard the raws before the effects, your mind would be blown. ?

Nice drums, but the mix falls a bit flat in terms of the muddiness vs clarity. It also sounds a bit too looped for my taste, but great idea regardless.

This is not the final mix so the levels aren't perfect. There will be vocals at some point too so that's why it's "looped".

Thanks for listening!
