Damn.. As if your trying to get people to download a PDF.

You could of ratted that shit for all we know or it could be a hook page ready for us to get hacked.

If you have a method for this why not post publicly or at least to a pastebin or justpaste note...

Is there a lot of people getting hacked on this site? This is the only place I receive this much scepticism.

However, its not the PDF I'm trying to push, its the lesson that come right after.

It says that on the page.

But I appreciate your input, and I will definitely take a look at making that more clear.

That was such a stupid question.

People attempt to infect people here all the time. Think about all the crypto currency and other forms of currency people use on this forum daily. It's a blackhat's dream.

Only stupid people will download a PDF from users on a forum where HACK is in the name.

Also, you use the word stupid to many times. Try to expand your vocabulary.

Haha, that I actually like.

Thanks.

Here's a copy of the virus scan, just in case anyone wants to see it.
