This is now a game of Jeopardy,

[Me]: Yeah, I'll take Private Bitcoin Script for $750.

[Armada]: This is a script that gains fund from thin air.

[Me]: What is, a magic genie lamp that grants wishes?

[Armada]: I'm sorry that is incorrect.

Would it be possible to get a little more information on "Government Greys"?

Government Greys is a 3 volume series containing all the verified documentation obtained by US Government, and other government agencies about knowledge and investigation in to Extraterrestrial life.

You can view a preview of the book from its printed format here

If Interested I will provide all 3 volumes and the follow up project investigation for $50 even. Just let me know I will provide my BTC address.

No description will be given on HF, for reasons.

If you can find me on Discord I will explain further. Its well worth the cost though, I will say that much.
