Description

So this user had messaged me asking for 100M OSRS GP for BTC but said he wasn't going to go first. I figured that was fine, he has awards and title I know I would be that way with those as well. We talk about price of GP and then we meet in game, I double check his name and trade him the gold. I proceed to give him my BTC address, no response for a couple minutes so I go to his profile and he's in self-ban area..

You should add the contract into the scam report in the original post so people can see it. Just saying.

So is there no way to close my open dispute he left me with? That kind of seems like a flaw in the contract system for people that get scammed..

Money- - November 25, 2018, 8:42 am

Sorry for your loss , I think I will open a dispute too after a week if that guy I am dealing hasn't respond or online. Apparently I sent him $107 for 50 steam gcs.
Well , my fault anyways. I was desperate so yeah , next time I will try to be serious on deals instead of yoloing my money all the time lol.

Show proof of you giving him the gold, in those screenshot you just talk about the selling the gold. You could be lying to and trying to make him look bad just saying. I dont say you did but there is a possibility.

I had bad expr. with OP so, thats why I stopped by.

Show proof of you giving the gold matching his username that he provided.

Thanks.

First of all, I thought we had already resolved our issues but I guess not.. on top of everyone else calling you out for scamming in the Virtual Sales section you can fuck right off. Second of all, name one person that takes videos/pictures of their gold transactions, I'd love to hear it. Third and final, he made it pretty apparent that he scammed me when he self-banned himself after I gave the gold, I think everyone can agree to that.

If anyone wants to check out Lipton's threads here are a few for you to see how "trustworthy" he really is.. Imao

Well maybe they call me out but I dont. You act like a complete moron to me and expect me to not say shit? Yeah pretty sure most people who sell gold do make screenshots of transactions and make them for example verify the amount put up in trade. So you have a real time proof how much and when you sold gold. Anyways just saying you could be the one scamming aswell... Just saying.

Thanks, bye.

I caught you in the act of self-ban. You scammed $90 bucks and now you're trying to do it again, good luck with your sales. I'll be keeping this up until I get my $90 BTC. Have a good night worthless shit.

GripeseE - December 21, 2018, 7:10 pm

Opticals - December 21, 2018, 7:11 pm

Again, I'll let everyone else check this out and see how they feel. You scammed me and I'm sticking to it. I trusted you because of your usergroups and awards, you took advantage and now are trying to be an even bigger piece of shit. Merry Christmas.

GripeseE - December 21, 2018, 7:58 pm

Dude, that's fine if you want to waste your time on false statements then do it. I'm sorry I really don't have any respect for people that are as petty as you. If I say I no longer want to deal with you, that in no way gives you the right to fucking lie and throw a hissy fit. Please show me the screenshot of u sending me the gold otherwise shut up don't bother me stick to your nonsense I don't care lol.

Opticals - December 21, 2018, 8:04 pm

Keep fucking typing this long paragraphs and waste your time kid, you took my money and you know it. Don't PM me, don't post on my shit, you know you did it and that's all I need. I hope you die on Christmas, you disappointment.

gore - December 21, 2018, 8:11 pm

I mean, LeadAess, you want him to show proof of sending the gold and he's the only one who's posted any kind of proof. Lol. You vaca banned for 2 weeks right after (and didn't reply to this thread until you came back), then come back and immediately try and change the story w no proof on your end other than just flat out insults to the OP.

If you don't wanna waste your time on it, then don't. But from a non-biased view since I don't know either of you, Optical's side of it seems more legit and you just look like you're trying to back track and cover it up.

You can argue all you want, and I'm sure this DD won't ever be resolved, so don't waste your time trying to insult people on top of it all. Just makes you look defensive.

GripeseE - December 21, 2018, 8:13 pm

Why does he have to talk shit about me, I'd give leadaess the doubt. Optical's is been a complete bitch against me and was shitposting all my content since I did not want to sell to him. After that when he spoke and when he was cool but literally 1-2 days after he started to harass me again with shitpost.

OP won't also leave me alone he is been focusing all my content for the past couple of weeks saying that I am a scammer but still he has no proof or anything from me scamming.

OP has no proof of scamming, and should get exiled he is way too toxic to be here.

Exiled Imfao. When you two are the sketch cadets of HF, you won't use a MM and he actually did scam me. And we were cool and then you decided to come and post on here and try and call me out for lying about being scammed? Funny how the sketchy user works with the scamming user, little rats the two of you.
