Thread: What game did you buy today? \(Black Friday\)

Zexi - November 23, 2018, 8:25 am

Looking to buy something for myself but i dont know what.

Please share what you bought today so i can check it out too!

EDIT:

Well i guess i can recommend Oxygen Not Included to people since its on sale now. Really fun resource/human management game, it's made by Klei Entertainment the people that made Don't Starve. Dope art style. Would definitely recommend + if you don't like it and you played less than 10 hours you can always refund it.

You mean on steam? Buy all your wish lists then. I have like 50+ games on my wish list. Not sure if I wana crop them all on 70-90% though.

What do you think? Should I?

For PC, one I have seen for a while that I liked ?

Never heard of it will check it out.

OT seems like there weren't any interesting deals on steam. Nothing for me at least.

I only bought NBA 2k19 as of now. I really want red dead 2 so I'm hoping something happens during Cyber Monday for it.

I've purchased Assassins Creed Odyssey and Shadow of The Tomb Raider. Will start playing those after finishing RDR 2

I got Rainbow Six Siege for a good price. I wanted to play the game for a long time now and Black Friday was the day.

Its too campy for me, but a good game nonetheless.

I just bought Shadow Warrior 2 its only 10 bucks, hopefully its good as some say. :D

I know that feel, i had the same feeling when i started playing Destiny 2. Like i am too late to the party and dont know what the fuck is going on.

Didn't bother buying any game since I already own BO4 and RDR2/.

Yin Yang - November 25, 2018, 6:49 am

I got red dead 2 (xbox one) for $38 on eBay with shipping after applying a $10 coupon, you can't beat that price ha! And I got 2k19 for like $30 at Walmart so I essentially got 2 games for 1 since they go for about $65 with tax.
