Thread: 123 Combat Level Runescape Account - Total Level 1550+

General Relativity - November 25, 2018, 8:47 am

I bought this account from another member on the forum as an impulse buy to enjoy some nostalgia.

Nostalgia was had, but ultimately I have no interest in pursuing further involvement with Runescape.

I'm now selling this account with a starting price of $80.

Please feel free to REPLY to this thread with an offer.

I will not go first unless you are highly trusted.

Accepted payment will be via BTC/LTC/ETH/PP/Bytes.

Imgur album link with pretty much everything you need to know about the account:

Few questions.

1. Who is the original owner?

2. Are you willing to take responsibility for Original Owner recovering the account?

The original owner is another member of HackForums.

I am willing to take responsibility for the safety of the account as this member is trustworthy in my eyes.

A 30 day guarantee is offered. To take advantage of that, you must show recovery was performed and not simply a case of lost credentials due to user error.
