Thread: Scammed 45 USD Cute UID:3281283

Pinee.YT - November 28, 2018, 12:04 pm

Literally just got ripped off by this 160 rep 0 deal disputes HF member again. Everyone rips off Normal members on this forum, it's insane. 3rd time I got scammed by trusted members. So sad.

He put me on his ignore list just now:

Anything else I can do to warn other guys from trading with this guy?

I'm done. Did HF really change it so ONLY UPGRADED members can create new deal disputes? Is this a joke?

Pyro - November 28, 2018, 12:16 pm

Reputation means shit nowadays, it doesnt prove if anyone is trusted or not

Cute - November 28, 2018, 12:19 pm

fyi I been bought your product AND sent you info.

This has long been resolved.

Send proof of doing the payment on your paypal balanced to the company's name I sent you. You ignored me aswell, what's your explanation for that? Just dont be a scamkid and do the payment and I will remove this deal dispute. How can you even scam with the rep and amount of posts you have, I dont get it. I even sent you extra BTC. Just please do the payment and I will close this. Thanks

How can I add this to the deal disputes? I need to contact and ub3r or l33t member?

Update: Cute unignored me. Let's see if he's actually going to resolve this. I hope so atleast. Im a student and money doesn't grow on the trees. I hope he has the dignity to actually complete this deal...

Update 2: He gave me -3 rep now aswell lol. Let's wait for Karma to pay back you've now wasted even more of my time, don't know why I am responding to a brick wall.

Honestly wish I could do more than a -3, shold be a -30 for morons

How about you actually show the proof he asks for and clear your name?

You make yourself look guilty.

ImportedGoods - November 28, 2018, 1:16 pm

Is there a contract? If there isnt why would you deal without a contract, and im pretty sure deal disputes dont mean anything if there isnt a contract set in place.

Frukt - November 28, 2018, 2:55 pm

I just dealt with Cute and saw this seconds after I sent the payment.

Thankfully he is legit and sends the funds a few seconds later.

PerfectStorm - November 28, 2018, 5:22 pm

Only brattings mean anything now days not popularity.

Opticals - November 28, 2018, 5:24 pm

He wanted me to go first and when I told him I had more b-ratings and I wouldn't be going first he negged me.. Lmao

And so you didnt go first right? what a prick

Wish I could -10 you tbh

This whole thread is a farce of a kid wanting a refund and I'm the "prick" because hes lying and calling me out as a scammer, lmao ok. -3 to you as well

Btw he still did not send proof of doing the payment on his paypal to the company's name I sent him. I WISH you could check PMs between me and Cute. This will immediately show that he is a scammer and literally insta blocked me after I sent payment. He deserves a ban badly. I would do anything to get him banned. I can show more than enough proof that he did indeed rip me off.

Anyways, thanks for everyone who negged this kid as I couldnt do it myself :D Really made my day

You make yourself look guilty.

Also OP, you are required to make contracts when you deal with cryptos

Also OP, you are required to make contracts when you deal on HF, no matter what the currency is

Indeed, even better, always make a contract

Pinee.YT - November 29, 2018, 11:33 am

Cute still did not send proof of doing the payment on his paypal to the company's name I sent him.

Whats your reasoning for not using a contract?

?elevison - November 29, 2018, 11:52 am

Don't worry OP. I will chase these guys down until the ending of time. You won't get scammed in vain.

Lol, show who you sent it to. It's a public organisation so you don't need to hide it.

elterco - November 29, 2018, 3:11 pm

This seems sketchy. All the proof here is bad proof. For start, the OP didn't screenshot the transaction properly (I can't see the btc address of cute).

Then, cute put a screenshot of the transaction blurring the name so it's not valid.

OP, try to use a contract the next time you do any deal on HF. Otherwise, the admin won't listen and you can't make a proper dispute

Eagle 95 - November 30, 2018, 11:54 pm

No contract, no dispute.
