Thread: New signature \(animated\) Rate My Graphic

?elevision - November 28, 2018, 3:52 pm

Hello and good evening,

Here is a new signature I created an animated one, that is. My username "Television" could be seen in white text.

Let me know what you think of it and what could be done to improve it.

They are quite annoying if I'm being honest.

Hurts my eyes but may be fun if I'm high.

?elevision - November 28, 2018, 6:16 pm

Let me know how could I improve this. What would you like to see done?

Thanks for your input, I will definitely work on using a greater variety of fonts.

I like it so far, just curious to see if a different font could make it look even doper

I appreciate your kind words, I'll work on using different fonts. Maybe even adding effects such as a glow behind the text could help things.

Yup, expect some new animated content from me sooner or later with some effects on the text.

Awesome brah

Ya I think the animation should be very minimal

As I said before, you're simply putting a background with text over it.

I don't know what's particularly impressive about this. Believe me, I'm not trying to hate, but you have low standards. Look at quality work on Behance, Dribbble, and other platforms.

You'll realize how much you need to push yourself.

Velma - November 29, 2018, 11:21 am make it less irritating for the eyes.

I know mate, I am working on it. As I said before I am a beginner.

My PC can't handle too many programs, or resources that I would like for it to handle.

But once I get more RAM, ect. I might start releasing some of the best.
