The price you paid per phone makes no sense, even in AUD currency which that website uses.

You dug through my profile so you could make that post? lol Pathetic.

Unfortunately for you, that's not a dig at me. If I were ashamed of it I wouldn't have made it public. Everyone has bills, dude. Also, while you're helping your dad sell his iPhones and living under his roof, I'm living under my own roof that I bought with my own money with my wife. So you have fun cuddling up to your dad's hairy ass.
