So the Blue Yeti of course but besides that, any recommendations?

AT2035 is what I own and love.

Just go for the Blue Yeti, it has the highest quality.

I also have one. I don't actually know if it's the "best" mic or not but it's more than sufficient for my needs.

Audio Technicia makes amazing products. I'd say for $100-200 range AT2035/AT2020 would be up their in "best". I am by no means an audiophile.
