Thread: Whats the future of bitcoins?

Some of the biggest speculators still have great faith in the coin.

Owner of McAfee has literally said he'd eat his own balls if the coin doesn't reach 1 million within 2020.

What do you think the future of Bitcoin will be?

McAfee is going to eat his own dick for sure. But I do think it has a future, just not yet. It seems like the people are not ready to move onto the future of money.

I think as current price is fairly low, it will rise again.

People always seem to forget that most black markets relay on bitcoins.

$1 mill is pretty high, but also achievable considering the went from price from $1 - $10,000

hopefully we see a new year rise

Yeah man, I'm holding mine till they crash or reach 50K.

And will buy some more over the next few months while they're cheap.

Doubt it'll reach 1 million by 2020 but I can see it going back to $20,000+ without a problem.

Yeah well McAfee is gonna eat his socks man. But 20K would be great, because I'm holding the cheap ones. ?

I think we will definitely see a 6 figures price for bitcoin in the next 5 years.

I 100% agree with this.

And I really hope for it.

Value has gone up today guys. Maybe it's time. ?

Bacardi Cola Lime - December 17, 2018, 5:42 am

I think it will go huge but not just yet. It will take time. I invest not that prices are low and hope for the best.
