EDIT : I APOLOGIZE FOR THIS THREAD EVERYTHING HAS BEEN HANDLED! BEAR IS A VERY GOOD RELIABLE MEMBER!

Sorry Bear Please Forgive me!

Why didn't you use a contract? Also, you might need to show some more proof other than a chat log.(screenshotting the chat log would be good too)

Dude shopify connects your domain automatically if you type in the domain and login through the domain provider..

I can help you with this for free lol why would you ever pay someone 15 dollars to do this.

EDIT: Dude you literally gave him a 20 minute window before you made this post? Patience is virtue my man.

I mean he paid, he shouldn't have to wait if they agreed.

But there is no contract so it's not valid.
Bear was always legit with me so relax bro.

There's really no time frame to be honest. Something could come up, he clearly said wait 5 minutes. Then it just so happened to turn into 20 minutes and it's possible he got caught up in something outside his computer screen. This is normal and Bear is obviously legit.

Considering he was telling you to set up contract and you said na, this is definitely on you. Lol. But I doubt he'll scam you $15.

reBELLYus - December 4, 2018, 4:36 pm

Sorry for your loss. Hopefully, he does the right thing and refunds you/provide the service.

He's going down a dark road.

How do we know this isn't an impersonator?

You posted your skype publicly, anyone could add you sh4moon - December 4, 2018, 4:45 pm

he has always seemed legit to me. people have things going on irl. it annoys the shit out of me when people won't just wait a few hours for a response. I'm not online 24/7, bear isn't either.

SuperPom, did you forgot some people have lives?

20 minutes is not even remotely enough time to justify this DD. Bear also has kids, he's gonna put them before a fucking HF deal lol. You guys are some impatient assholes.

Bear - December 4, 2018, 4:56 pm

Wait what....OP, could you please PM me the Skype ID that you had this conversation with? Mine had been advertised on this site for almost a year now.

OP, please get in touch with me since I dont offer such services and I am an avid advocate of the contract system. I will look further into this.

exactly. people are so impatient. just give him a little while to do what he's doing.

Triangle Eye - December 4, 2018, 5:00 pm

OP it's $15 bear is definitely not scamming you especially not for 15 bucks...

Don't act like an spoiled kid without any patience in his ass, you should atleast give him some more time to respond on skype before you decided to attempt to hurt his reputation over nothing.

Oh shit! This is happening more and more. Never deal outside of HF unless you know for damn sure who you're dealing with.

Many imposters are coming out of the woodwork lately - it's wicked! Whether it be Skype or the other chat platform, these guys do not quit. ?
