Thread: My imposter on skype ""Bear". BEWARE

Bear - December 4, 2018, 8:37 pm

The skype ID is:

Code apexofficial_

Scammed somebody on here for $15 already and could potentially add anyone else. Be very careful. I only confirm deals on site with contracts, anything else off site, it's not me.

If anyone ever sends you my profile and claims to be me, send me a PM. I am online almost 24/7 on HackForums for my homework service, so I should reply asap and confirm anything.

apexofficial_ is not the spelling of Bear. I'm confused. :(

Oh no fucking shit, he added me last night. That's why I started I contract with you, which I will cancel now.

He kept asking me to send the BTC first, I kept telling him no and to accept the contract. He ended up getting off and saying we'd talk in the morning.

Thanks for the heads up. Just looked at the profile again and it appears he's trying to impersonate me now - <http://prntscr.com/lqwa9p>

Will make my own alert as well
