It seems like the garbage ass population made a even worse rewind this year. Thanks to all the basic ass gamers of today we have fortnite in here. Also to make it worse the trash song know as in my feelings by drank.

I hate Youtube culture.

Still not as bad as the culture surrounding soundcloud.

The Rewind is so bad in my opinion.

Mix - December 9, 2018, 2:55 pm

Worst Rewind yet, Honestly Why make it based around fortnite when half of youtube hates it.

It is getting worst and worst every year.

Google doesn't need to push their own political agenda any further. The pathetic echo chamber that silicon valley has turned into is well represented by YouTube Rewind 2018. That's what they actually think the majority of people actually like to see as entertainment.

falkenburry - December 9, 2018, 3:25 pm

It gets worst every damn year

KillTheNoise - December 12, 2018, 6:56 pm

Youtube going for the most disliked video

Allelujah - December 12, 2018, 7:57 pm

Well.. It's like they're trying too hard or something.

What are they trying to prove? They've already achieved YT fame, why not actually make a chill video and give credit where credit is due. Would be cool to actually see what happened this year.

hundo78 - December 27, 2018, 1:27 pm

They've literally not included so many big youtube moments in this rewind, sad!
