It is a legitimate survey site, but you barely get matched with any surveys and you could be 10 minutes into one and they can just reject you. Plus on average you get around $0.35 - So work out how many you'd have to do to even make that time worthy.

Good share tho op

I have a site that has surveys from 20 different sites so you never run out of good paying surveys, send me a pm and ill link you with the details, in fact, clixsense is one of the offerwalls :)))

I know great survey sites if you are interested p.m me

samnl - June 15, 2019, 4:00 pm

I do not recommend surveys if you have a global audience. That particular country might not even have a survey and if so, not everyone wants to give away their personal data such as zip or mobile nr.

Try InstallUnion.com as an alternative. They simply provide you a download manager after uploading your file.

The link is dead, this site doesn't exist anymore, don't dig up old and irrelevant threads.

Thanks
