Thread: What type of person are you. View by Sections or View new?

Anima - December 11, 2018, 2:57 am

I always use View New to browse threads rather than using sections, what do you use?

I was kind a of a person to sit here and just click new posts everytime and literally i can do that forever but realized that i'm just wasting my time and since then i only go to the sections in which im actually interested in.

I wander through sections. It makes my search for content more specified and in case I've missed something that I wouldn't be able to find by using View New, it makes life easier.

Definitely on the same boat here. I 'prepare my mind' for a discussion by browsing through sections. If I'm feeling like I want to look through Gaming forums I'll flick the 'gaming' switch in my head or if I want to look through the Lounge I'll flick the 'chill' switch in my head.

i personally use both, use the view new to see whats been recently posted, but i also use the sections to find things that is more intresting to me sort of me

Pyro - December 11, 2018, 12:15 pm

I browse only sections I'm interested in to be honest

Sheep - December 11, 2018, 12:16 pm

I just use view new. I don't have anything in particular I'm looking for, so I might happen across something I otherwise wouldn't see.

Effexion - December 11, 2018, 12:30 pm

View new all the time. Sometimes I will look in the PHP section if I want to learn a little but mostly 'New Posts'.

Purgatory - August 9, 2024, 12:32 am view by section, actually crazy.

_SyncX404 - January 9, 2025, 8:20 pm

Currently i'm using sections, but i'd where can I see the view new? that sounds easier to browse for new threads.

Deany - January 9, 2025, 8:25 pm

I like view new threads option

I just randomly scroll. Not really that active in the forums.

I use sections.

Jamika - January 10, 2025, 11:04 pm

Sections usually, i use both but lets say by 80% as sections generally

ExodusX - January 16, 2025, 5:43 pm

I usually use sections to view things but sometime i use search for specific thing on threads.

Rsynced - January 16, 2025, 6:19 pm

I am a sections guy.

Pr0m3th3us - January 16, 2025, 7:02 pm

When I first signed up I would browse by section, but nowadays I'm old and just go by new posts. Unless I'm using search or posting a new thread.
