Put it on market and lock it so only the person you want can buy it. Set for like 1 byte and have them buy it.

You will still have to pay the 200 byte fee for awards market i think. Not sure exactly how this works i havent really tried but this is what im told.

wit - December 12, 2018, 2:06 pm

Send me a PM with your cheapest ones
I've just recently returned to HF so I'm clueless on award pricing

Junior. - December 12, 2018, 5:54 pm

I will offer 30$ for you're banana

Lavish Living - December 12, 2018, 6:16 pm

you should price them atm, at like $100-200 per rare. fps, bh, disco, and flame should all be valued at $200... but willing to accept offers lower.

Cuddly has sold for as low as $70 before. green apple, drunk and banana all are like $100, you'll mainly get offers around $50-80 tho.

Don't let the fps, bh, flame, or disco go for too cheap please :p

If you hold onto all of them until feb-march 2019, i can pay around $1-1.2k for all of them.

as far as i know, businessman is untradable. and i haven't seen any dogs sell that i know of except when armada dumped all his... but honestly man the award market is so shit atm im guessing you can get like $50-100 for it lol.

Just know this, any offer under $100 for your uniques is a low ball. I would hang on to them for like a couple more years :p you got a very nice uniques collection, similar to testaccount's.
