Thread: \$26,000.00.... in 30 days!! AMAZON FBA / Passive Income

blobtown - December 14, 2018, 2:23 pm

I started own Amazon FBA business 2.5 months ago. In the past 30 days, I generated 26k in revenue (11.7k profit).

Other screenshots:

Spoiler (Click to View)

I wanted to post about this because I'm pretty proud to see where things have gone... in such a short time-frame! 2.5 months ago, I was scared as FUCK, nervous about the future. I am also a woman of color and I haven't seen many people that look like me do well in this field. So I felt pretty isolated, I guess.

I'm thinking about starting my own Amazon FBA mentorship program. I'm an undergraduate at Stanford University, so I'm looking for more ways to help pay for my 75k tuition. Any thoughts on this mentorship program?

Hoodie+ - December 14, 2018, 2:24 pm

That sounds crazy. You started with no experience and are making this much?

There is currently 1 mentorship on this site, by Mvmt.

You can open it here but I think it's much better to start growing a personal brand & earn additional income that way.

The basic thing would be to setup a quick site, make a free offer ("10 mistakes FBA beginners make", something like that) to collect their email, then you can use funnels to upsell & email marketing them your mentorship program.

Nice earnings regardless, keep up the great work.

I did a lot of research online before starting my own amazon FBA business. Probably about 200 hours worth. I made a detailed outline on how I was going to market my product, what my costs looked like, my launch strategy, etc. Then I just executed it.

So I guess I did have no experience! I'm good at studying :) so I made sure to do my homework before I invested money into my business. After doing so, I feel like I can mentor people through the process. Or launch more products in a fraction of the time it took me to launch my first one. There are so many twists and potholes people can fall into with Amazon fba.

This is awesome keep up the good work :) If you don't mind answering how much did you invest when you started this.

Oooh I hear a lot of people do those marketing funnels nowadays! I think I might try it out! :) Thank you for your suggestion! Really :)

$3,815.

I paid $3500 for the first 2000 units. The $315 went to various fees (incorporation, sampling, software, etc.)

xjamer - December 14, 2018, 2:50 pm

Thanks for answering also I do funnels etc and I would also recommend that it will skyrocket your sales.

FawkCidy - December 14, 2018, 8:04 pm

Not op but I've heard a couple stories or mentors getting screwed over by their mentorees, just something to watch out for before committing. Grats on the earnings, you seem really smart & deserve it.

I'm confused. what, specifically, about my words made you feel frustrated? I don't like being referred to as "him" all the time here because I'm not a dude.

the6ix - December 15, 2018, 7:38 pm

For a second I thought you were doing better than me, but I see that you only made 10k profit.

I've made 11k in the past 29 days, and it's all profit.

Congrats op, nice profit after 2 and half months...

I never tried FBA for any of my products, Can i ask, which industry you target?

& Good luck with the rest of your sales.

It's possible if you do research and marketing of the product right. For me I do CPA with Google Ads and if a new product is launched I can tell you if the product has the potential :)

blank13 - December 29, 2018, 10:45 am

Can you tell us a little bit about your marketing strategy?

Thanks a lot and have a great day.

That's some sucker shit right? Some people are that desperate to want to feel accepted, that since they don't get much attention outside of the computer, they resort to doing weird shit like that. Kind of reminds me of like when a little kid will do anything for attention.

How much money does amazon eat from ur sales?

SIM-964740 - January 6, 2019, 3:18 pm

Well done, looks like you are doing well.

My suggestion would be to focus on doing what is making you money - Amazon FBA. Do not waste time branching out to mentorships at this stage.

pubmaster - January 6, 2019, 3:24 pm

This is just impressive Miss. Blobtown.

From someone who didn't have any knowledge and was scared to begin.
And now here we are. This was very inspiring to read. Thank you for sharing your journey.

I wish you greater success on the road ahead and may you earn much more than the tuition fees you are looking to cover.

Regards, Wolf ?

As everyone mentioned earlier, this quite an impressive and inspiring story.

I highly admire your tenacity in this business venture.

As the saying goes, you have to risk money in order to make money.

This is well-deserved and I can only hope to capture of glimpse of this feeling in the upcoming months as I desperately look for ways to make mucho dinero, and, of course, that'll only be possible through a strong work ethic and self-discipline(which I'm working on).

Thank you for this, (Reminded me that diligently planning will definitely help in the long run)

Have a good one,

Average_User
