Cara Delevingne - December 14, 2018, 4:06 pm

I need something new to binge, I like romance / action.

B E A S T - December 14, 2018, 4:14 pm

I don't know anything much of romance/action but I'd recommend shameless, has a bunch of episodes. One of my favorites.

I started that, should finish it actually it was really good.

Black Mirror is pretty fucked up and cool, i suggest starting with season 3 and if you like it then bring it back to season 1 and 2. Also check out Altered Carbon, it's one of my favorite series, it's only one season currently and season two is in production.

If you're into comic book stuff, I believe all of the dc shows (arrow, flash, legends of tomorrow, supergirl) are on Netflix America. In Canada we only get flash and supergirl.

They're excellent shows, especially arrow and flash. They can start off a little campy but grow into serious, action packed dramas, and all have large romantic subplots for the main characters.

They also all intertwine, which each show serving as a pilot for the next. If you want to know exactly when in a season to start watching the next show, you'll usually know or you can look online.

CrystalFlare - December 14, 2018, 4:31 pm

The paper house, one of the best.

laguerre1 - February 8, 2019, 10:43 am

Seasons 1 & 3 of Daredevil (Season 2 wasn't horrible, just a letdown after 1).
Both seasons of The Punisher.

... that's all I can think of. I only torrent, I don't actually have Netflix.

Oh, and I thought Altered Carbon was a huge disappointment, especially compared to the book.
Boring, overly-long, really bad fight scenes, and poor acting.

Febtober2k - February 11, 2019, 4:08 am

I think Occupied was something of a sleeper series that went largely unnoticed, but I really liked it.

In an effort to help the environment, Norway cuts off all natural gas exports. This leads to a "soft" Russian invasion. Pretty interesting, and plus Scandinavian women are stupid hot, so there's that.

Cayman1000 - February 12, 2019, 2:33 am

I started The Last Kingdom and i must say i love it.
Didn't thought that i like it that much.
